

Uniform Assistance Program

Each year, Dallas ISD's Uniform Assistance Program, administered by the Family & Community Engagement department, provides one free uniform to students per year in prekindergarten through eighth grade and limited uniforms available for high school students whose families meet the district's economically disadvantaged guidelines, according to board policy.

Parents will now be able to request a uniform through PowerSchool for eligible students.

THE FREE UNIFORM CONSISTS OF:

Top (white, navy blue, or red)

Bottom (khaki, navy blue, black)
