

Service Learning Presentation

At the end of each school year, you will present your service learning project to your advisory, highlighting the research you conducted on the organization you served, the current needs of the organization, the type of work you did, the impact you had on the organization, and what you gained from the experience. Below is a presentation planner to help you get started. You may use this outline when preparing your presentation which aligns with the VNS service learning standards; however, be open to new strategies and additional information you could share about your service experience.

- I. Introduction
  - A. Identify Organization
  - B. Its Mission Statement
- II. Discuss the Activities you were engaged in
- III. Identify the Organization's Need for Volunteers
- IV. Discuss Your Live Source Interview
- V. Impact Statement
  - A. How Your Service Helped the Organization
  - B. What Effect the Service Had on You
- VI. Conclusion
  - A. Other Candidates at VNS to Serve the Organization
  - B. Your Service Plan for Next Year
