

Dallas ISD Common Source Systems

System Name	System Description	System Department
Automated Records Management System	ARMS is a proprietary software package from End2End Public Safety, Inc. That manages student crime data as well as maintains crime statistics and reports by campus.	Police and Security Services
Chancery	A web-based student information system that will replace the StuSys legacy system and manage all student data such as (grade reporting, attendance, student registration, special Programs, etc.)	Management Information Systems
Curriculum Central	A system that management all the course curriculum requirements for a teacher.	Management Information Systems
Encore	A comprehensive technology for managing special populations by automating and streamlining data collection and management	Management Information Systems
EXCEED	A system that manages the Special Education programs, student's Individual Education Plans (IEPs), and also is used to document and record 'Response to Intervention' (RTI)
Facilities Management System (FMS)	An internally-developed system that will manage all facilities management related information (i.e. work orders)	Management Information Systems
Food and Nutrition Services Database	A system of databases that track: meals per food item, inventory, equipment, records for recipes, amount of leftover food items, free and reduced student list, scanning of meal applications, service calls for maintenance, production schedules, etc...	Food and Nutrition Services
GradeSpeed	A web-based grading system that will manage all student grades in the district	Management Information Systems
MyData Portal	A web portal that primarily contains student demographic and achievement information	Evaluation and Accountability: Data Analysis, Reporting, and Research
Oracle (Finance)	The primary database management system used by the Dallas ISD to manage and store information	Management Information Systems

Dallas ISD Common Source Systems

System Name	System Description	System Department
Oracle (Human Development and Payroll)	The primary database management system used by the Dallas ISD to manage and store information	Management Information Systems
Public Education Information Management System (PEIMS)	A set of data that is used for the extraction, analysis and reporting of student, staff, budget, and financial information in a timely and accurate manner in accordance with annual guidelines provided by the Texas Education Agency.	Management Information Systems: PEIMS
SchoolDude	System for tracking work orders
Statewide Abuse, Neglect and Exploitation Reporting System	A system to report suspected child abuse/neglect and domestic violence to the proper authorities.	The Office of Child Abuse/Neglect and Domestic Violence
Student Attendance Monitoring System (SAMS)	An internally-developed system that stores all student truancy information.	Management Information Systems
Student Discipline System	An internally-developed system within the Dallas ISD that stores all student discipline information	Management Information Systems