

MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES

Offering mental, behavioral, and physical health services to promote the health, wellbeing, and success of students and families.

School-Based Services Mental Health

- Behavior support and intervention
- Individual counseling
- Group counseling
- Crisis intervention
- Staff training
- Community outreach

For more information, contact your school counselor or the School-Based Clinician at your campus

Clinic Services Mental Health

- Individual therapy
- Family therapy
- Group therapy
- Psychiatric services
- Parenting classes
- Staff training
- Community outreach

For more information, contact Adamson Youth and Family Center at 972-502-4003

Clinic Services Physical Health

- Routine, sick and chronic illness care
- Sports physicals
- Immunizations
- Preventive services
- Health education
- STD/HIV testing
- Family planning
- Pregnancy tests

For more information, please call Adamson YFC's Parkland number at 214-266-0955

The Youth and Family Center serving your campus is:

Adamson Youth and Family Center

201 E. Ninth Street, Dallas 75203 - (972)502-4003

The YFC is located behind the old Adamson High School building, facing 8th street. The front door is across from Fire Station 15.

Center Manager: Gabriela Driskill
Administrative Assistant: RuthAnn Lopez

Service Hours:

Clinic/Mental Health Services: Monday to Thursday 8 am - 7 pm, Friday 8 am - 4 pm

Parkland/Physical Health Services: Monday to Thursday 8 am - 5:00 pm, Friday 8 am - 12 pm