

Line Chart

---

The Line Chart (or line graph) is used to compare sets of data. Typically, the line chart is used to compare sets of data over time. Students can use this tool to track progress in particular areas through the week, month or school year. More than one line can be used to track multiple sets of data over the same time period

