

Davie County Names Caroline Stalvey Assistant Principal at William Ellis Middle School

Mocksville, NC – April 15, 2024 – Caroline Stalvey has been named assistant principal at William Ellis Middle School beginning in the 2024-2025 school year.

Stalvey started her education career as a teacher in Davidson County, serving the elementary level before joining Davie County Schools in August 2021. She served as a teacher at Shady Grove for two years before taking the role of principal intern at South Davie Middle School in August 2023. There she has served as a clinical intern while working to complete her Master of School Administration from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, where she will graduate in May.

Stalvey earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Elementary Education from High Point University, along with an Academically and Intellectually Gifted Certification from Duke University, where she earned the highest GPA in the graduation class.

Along the way, she has earned numerous honors and achievements including being selected for Principal Preparation for Excellence and Equity in Rural Schools (PPEERS), a nationally awarded NC Principals Fellows program, and Student Teacher of the Year at High Point University.

“I am passionate about building strong relationships with students, staff, and parents, and I am thrilled to lead in this new role as assistant principal,” said Stalvey.

She enjoys spending her free time with friends and family, and loves all things winter.
