

Tracie Welch Named Assistant Principal For William R. Davie Elementary

Mocksville, NC – April 15, 2024 – Davie County Schools has announced Tracie Welch as the new assistant principal at William R. Davie Elementary School.

Welch has served in Davie County Schools for 19 years, with her most recent role as instructional coach at Mocksville Elementary School where her work included coaching teachers, mentoring beginning teachers, and facilitating professional learning team meetings. Prior to that, she was a first and second grade teacher at Pinebrook Elementary School, where she was named Teacher of the Year in 2015.

Welch earned her Bachelor's degree in Elementary Education from Appalachian State University, her Master's from Winston-Salem State University, and has continued her leadership development through the ASCEND program at High Point University.

"I am passionate about building strong relationships with students, staff and families to create a positive learning environment, and look forward to beginning my new role as assistant principal at William R. Davie," said Welch.

Welch spends her free time with her husband who teaches at Davie County High School, and with her two daughters, who are Davie County Schools students. She is also an avid marathon runner.
