- ✓ Have received the sacrament of First Holy Communion
- ✓ Can provide sacramental records or other suitable proof of having received those sacraments

If The Above Requirements Are Met, How Can One Be Prepared for Confirmation?

The first call should be to one's own parish. They are the first point of contact, and many either run their own classes or are preparing to do so.

If a parish is not offering Adult Confirmation classes, a list of the parishes who are doing so is available on the website of The Center for Catholic Education & Formation (The Center) at: www.CatholicEdAOHCT.org. The contact information to register for those classes is listed on the website, as well.

The Center coordinates the Adult Confirmation ceremonies in the fall and in the spring, but does not offer classes outside of parishes. However, assistance in finding appropriate preparation is offered by The Center – please call 860-242-5573.
