Please use the following suggestions to help you type a recommendation for your child. No one knows your child better than you and your input is most helpful while writing your child's recommendation. Once you have completed your writing, email the finished product to your child's counselor before the end of their JUNIOR school year!

Here are some suggestions:

- Interests, hobbies, or activities he or she participates in school, the community, or work.
- Describe your child's Personal qualities and characteristics (please include examples) that set your child apart from his or her peers.
- Any obstacles that your child may have overcome or any challenges he or she has managed well.
- Any areas of exceptional growth in your child during his or her high school experience.
- Any accomplishments or any events that made you especially proud of your child.

If your child has a disability or other special needs, do you give permission to disclose this information in the counselor's recommendation? ____ Yes ____ No **
