MARICOPA UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT

SENIOR SALUTES!

Get ready to witness the rise of three new financial titans! These Maricopa High School seniors are gearing up to tackle the complex world of economics, and they're about to make some serious money moves.

Dante Westmiller is ready to knock it out of the park at the University of Wisconsin-Superior, where he plans to study economics. Having secured the Thea M. Anderson Award, UWS Baseball Out-of-State Award, and George Kell Trust Fund Award - Dante is set to be a game-changer in two fields: economics and sports.

Ethan Chavez is set to make major plays at South Mountain Community College, where his keen business sense and athletic prowess on the baseball field have already earned him an athletic scholarship. With ambitions as large as his talents, Ethan is gearing up to score big in both the boardroom and on the baseball diamond.

Abigail Judd is composing her future at Mount Holyoke College with a double major in Economics and Music. A celebrated artist and scholar, Abigail blends analytical precision with artistic expression, setting the stage for a harmonious career in both fields.

With Dante, Ethan, and Abigail leading the charge, the future of economics isn't just promising—it's entering a bull market!

Sincerely,

Dr. Tracey Lopeman, Superintendent
Maricopa Unified School District
