

Northern Kentucky FEDERAL CREDIT UNION

The credit union difference starts here.

At Northern Kentucky Federal Credit Union, you are more than just a number. You are part of a full-service financial institution that can give you individualized service with a smile. We offer a list of products and services with little to no fees. Unlike banks, credit unions are not-for-profit. Any money we attain we give back to our members in the form of low interest rates as well as products and services to make your financial life easier.

Save money and see the credit union difference today!
