Fiscal Year 2023-2024

Allocation for Fiscal year 23-24: $ 365,258.00

1. Narrative description of the Prop 28 arts education program funded:

Gateway USD employs three full-time teachers dedicated to delivering comprehensive art education to students from Transitional Kindergarten (TK) through twelfth grade. At Shasta Lake School, Grand Oaks Elementary, and Buckeye School of the Arts, TK-5th grade students participate in art classes twice a week, each session lasting approximately 30 minutes.

For the 7th and 8th graders at Buckeye School of the Arts, art is integrated into their daily schedule as an elective. Similarly, students in grades 7-12 at Toyon Learning Center engage in art as a chosen elective every day. Each art teacher crafts lessons designed to actively engage students and foster their creativity. Many of these art lessons are interconnected with other classroom subjects to enhance overall student learning.

During the 2023-2024 school year, the support from Prop 28: Arts and Music in Schools enabled the district to provide art education to a total of 1,121 students. The program has successfully elevated students' artistic skills and creativity, significantly contributing to their comprehensive education experience.
