

Educational Support Personnel Basis of Employment

Section A - Introduction

Educational support personnel who normally work at least 30 hours per week on a 11 month (239 days) or 12 month (260 days) basis shall be considered full time employees and shall be eligible for 260 day educational support personnel benefits provided by the district.

Educational support personnel who normally work at least 30 hours per week on a 10-month basis shall be considered full time employees and shall be eligible for 10-month educational support personnel benefits provided by the district.

Section B - Eligibility for Benefits

The assistant superintendent for human resources shall make the final determination regarding questions of an educational support staff member's eligibility for benefits provided by the district.

Approved: January 23, 1995
Revised: September 25, 2000
Revised: December 13, 2010