Change in Leadership Announced for CGHS

GREENWOOD, IN (June 28, 2024) – Center Grove will name Mrs. Tracy McMahen the next principal of Center Grove High School. Dr. Jeff Henderson has resigned from the position effective June 30, to become an assistant superintendent in Monroe County Community School Corporation. CGCSC thanks Dr. Henderson for his 7 years of service to Center Grove and wishes him the best. Mrs. McMahen's appointment is pending approval by the CGCSC Board of School Trustees at its next meeting.

Mrs. McMahen has served as an assistant principal at CGHS, for the last eight years. She has also served as a dean at CGHS. Prior to becoming an administrator, McMahen taught for 15 years at Center Grove Middle School Central and was named a building Teacher of the Year in 2012. This year, McMahen was named the Region 9 Assistant Principal of the Year. McMahen holds a bachelor's degree in English Education from Franklin College and a master's degree in Administrative Leadership from Ball State University.

CGCSC is thrilled to welcome Mrs. McMahen in this new role and looks forward to the great leadership she will bring to Center Grove High School students, staff, and families.
