I Chose Health Coverage Under a HSA-Qualified High Deductible Health Plan.

What's Next ?

Video

What is an HSA?

- An employee account opened at a bank or financial institution
- HSA contributions are deducted pre-tax basis directly from the employee's payroll check to pay for qualified medical expenses

Who qualifies?

Employees who:

- Have health coverage under a HSA-qualified High Deductible Health Plan
- Have no other health Insurance plans
- Are not enrolled in Medicare Parts A and B
- Cannot be claimed as a dependent on someone else's tax return

Enroll in an HSA-Qualified High Deductible Health Plan under Kaiser or Anthem on ease, our online benefits portal.
Employees have the option to sign up to use American Fidelity as their HSA administrator, by contacting American Fidelity at: (800) 365-9180; ask to make an appointment to meet with representative to sign up for an HSA account administered by American Fidelity Create an account and indicate contribution to be deducted from OSD payroll.
Complete a Voluntary Deduction Change Form (located here)
Give completed Voluntary Deduction Change Form to Payroll. This initiates tax-free contributions via payroll into your account up to the IRS maximums
Use tax-free savings account for qualified medical, dental and vision expenses!

Created February 2023