Questions/Concerns:

Old Business

- Title VI program update:
 - Student Advisory Council set goals, will attend future meetings, HS student council will collaborate with advisory council, and the middle school is yet to be determined. Middle school will attend JOM meeting & Feb School Board meeting. HS would like to see more HS and Career readiness.
 - Indian taco fundraiser brought in over $1000
 - Juniors and seniors went to FIS to welcome and hear the Dakota 38 riders. Details may be in the paper
 - Elementary TOM shoes were handed out. HS will be in January
 - K-4 will get stockings on Friday.
 - Continues with morning home visits
 - 4th grade groups identified as spelling help
 - JOM Ed assistant starting will help serve needs
 - Going well at culture club.
 - Homework help happening Monday thru Thursday.
 - Evaluate with Mr. Weber students smaller group to discuss meeting times for Middle and Senior High kids to use as a reward.

- Dept. of Ed will be completing an audit for Title VI Grantees. Some sights will have sight visits.
- Teacher in-service planning
 - Cynthia will set up for next fall.
 - Elisabetta and Mr. Weber will look at Tech. Innovative and Education having a speaker come in. (April Eastman)

- IPP approval

- IPP Changes were made and distributed. Gayle motioned to approve the amended IPP and Tanya seconded.

New Business

- Busing concerns - bullying issues and safety a concern. Bus needs a monitor and solutions are needed. A count of kids will be taken.
- Concerns about student meetings – Topics of Discussions
 - Be sure groups aren't giving mental health advice during Student Advisory Groups.
 - Concerns from teachers thinking groups aren't structured. Discussion on how native teaching is not linear and different than how the teachers teach.
 - Need for teachers to be involved with native student and cultural activities.
 - Invite Faculty to Sr. Honoring.
- Put on agenda to help those who are hungry get seconds. Possibly set up a share table.
- Impact aide application is coming up.

*Need to set next meeting date: January 29th at 5:15pm
