Please answer questions truthfully even if the conviction was expunged, reversed, or otherwise set aside. A “Yes” answer will not necessarily result in denial of placement. The District considers all circumstances, including the date and nature of events, which led to the actions described. Providing a written explanation helps determine your eligibility and suitability for placement. Failure to complete this form accurately and completely may mean disqualification from consideration, and may result in prosecution for filing false information with a public agency. Applicants are notified that they must immediately report an arrest or being charged with any of the crimes in A.R.S. 41-1758.03 (B). This statutory requirement includes arrests occurring after initial completion of this form.
