WHAT DO I NEED TO KNOW ABOUT THIS POSITION?

This title is employed for positions which are created for the main purpose of relieving school teachers of that part of their duties which while related to the teaching process, can be performed by non-professional personnel. The duties of this class differ from those of School Monitor due to the more complex nature of the assignments that are performed. The duties of school monitor are generally quite limited in scope, whereas the duties of a teacher aide often require skills of abilities.

WHO ARE WE LOOKING FOR?

Good general intelligence; ability to establish good relationships with children and others; familiarity with classroom routine; good background or knowledge in specific field where specialized duties are involved; above average clerical aptitude; resourcefulness in conducting above described activities indirectly related to teaching process; neat personal appearance; ability to maintain discipline, tact; courtesy, good judgment; good physical condition.

HOW DO I APPLY?

Applications must be completed at <https://cal-mum.recruitfront.com>, or the link on our website www.cal-mum.org under District tab, Employment Opportunities.

FINGERPRINTS REQUIRED

Persons wishing to be employed within a school district must be fingerprinted. Caledonia-Mumford School District utilizes the MorphoTrust system for digital fingerprinting. An appointment for fingerprinting needs to be made electronically by accessing the website at www.identogo.com, service code:14ZGR7. The total fee for fingerprinting is approximately $102.00.
