Norwalk Board of Education appoints new SoNo Assistant Principal and Kendall College and Career Academy Magnet STEAM supervisor

Norwalk, Conn. (June 27, 2024) - The Norwalk Board of Education held a special meeting on Thursday to appoint a new assistant principal for SoNo Elementary School, as well as a new Magnet STEAM supervisor at Kendall College and Career Academy.

Randall D. Austin will serve as the new assistant principal of SoNo Elementary School. He most recently served as the assistant principal of Kendall College and Career Academy. Mr. Austin has served the KCCA community since 2013 in various capacities.

Miranda M. Getz will become the new Magnet STEAM Supervisor at Kendall College and Career Academy. She has most recently served as the acting assistant principal of Cranbury Elementary School.

For more information about each new appointment, see below:

Randall D. Austin

Assistant Principal of SoNo Elementary School

Mr. Austin has served Kendall Career and College Academy as an enhanced curriculum teacher from 2018 to 2021, a 5th grade teacher from 2017 to 2018, and a kindergarten teacher from 2015 to 2017. He started his career at Kendall as a kindergarten paraprofessional from 2013 to 2014.

He has also served as a reading interventionist for one year at Brookside Elementary School in the 2014-15 school year.

Showing his dedication to the community, Mr. Austin has also served as a parent university instructor through Norwalk's Parent University and as a lead program coordinator for the After The Bell Carver Foundation.
