

Privacy Notice for visitors to the academy sites/the trust

September 2023

1. Introduction

Under UK data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how an academy/the trust uses any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about visitors to the trust and individual academy sites.

The trust, University of Brighton Academies Trust, The Burgess Hill Academy, Station Road, Burgess Hill, West Sussex, RH15 9EA tel: 01273 082005, is the 'data controller' for the purposes of UK data protection law.

Our data protection officer is Kathryn Smith, Director of Governance and Admissions.

2. The personal data we hold

Personal data that we may collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) about you includes, but is not restricted to:

- Name
- Contact details
- Information relating to your visit, e.g. your company or organisation name, arrival and departure time, and vehicle number plate

We may also collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) information about you that falls into 'special categories' of more sensitive personal data. This includes, but is not restricted to:

- Photographs for identification purposes
- CCTV images captured in an academy, the trust or an organisation of the trust
- Information about any access arrangements that may be required

We may also hold data about you that we have received from other organisations, including other schools and social services.

3. Why we use this data

We use this data to:

- Identify you and keep you safe while on the trust site or an academy site
- Keep pupils and staff safe
- Maintain accurate records of visits to each academy

- Provide appropriate access arrangements

4. Use of your personal data for marketing purposes

Where you have given us consent to do so, we may send you marketing information by email or text promoting school events, campaigns, charitable causes or services that may be of interest to you.

You can withdraw consent or 'opt out' of receiving these emails and/or texts at any time by clicking on the 'Unsubscribe' link at the bottom of any such communication, or by contacting us (see 'Contact us' below).

5. Use of your personal data in automated decision-making and profiling

We do not currently process any visitor's personal data through automated decision-making or profiling. If this changes in the future, we will amend any relevant privacy notices in order to explain the processing to you, including your right to object to it.

6. Our lawful basis for using this data

We only collect and use your personal information when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we use it where we need to:

- Comply with a legal obligation

Less commonly, we may also use this personal information where:

- We need to perform an official task in the public interest
- We have obtained consent to use it in a certain way
- We need to protect an individual's vital interests (in a life-or-death situation)

Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent, and explain how you would go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so.

7. Our basis for using special category data

For 'special category' data, we only collect and use it when we have both a lawful basis, as set out above, and one of the following conditions for processing as set out in UK data protection law:

- We have obtained your explicit consent to use your personal data in a certain way
- We need to perform or exercise an obligation or right in relation to employment, social security or social protection law
- We need to protect an individual's vital interests (i.e. protect your life or someone else's life), in situations where you are physically or legally incapable of giving consent
- The data concerned has already been made manifestly public by you
- We need to process it for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims
- We need to process it for reasons of substantial public interest as defined in legislation
- We need to process it for health or social care purposes, and the processing is done by, or under the direction of, a health or social work professional or by any other person obliged to confidentiality under law
- We need to process it for public health reasons, and the processing is done by, or under the direction of, a health professional or by any other person obliged to confidentiality under law

- We need to process it for archiving purposes, scientific or historical research purposes, or for statistical purposes, and the processing is in the public interest

For criminal offence data, we will only collect and use it when we have both a lawful basis, as set out above, and a condition for processing as set out in UK data protection law. Conditions include:

- We have obtained your consent to use it in a specific way
- We need to protect an individual's vital interests (i.e. protect your life or someone else's life), in situations where you are physically or legally incapable of giving consent
- The data concerned has already been made manifestly public by you
- We need to process it for, or in connection with, legal proceedings, to obtain legal advice, or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal rights
- We need to process it for reasons of substantial public interest as defined in legislation

8. Collecting this data

While the majority of information we collect about you is mandatory, there is some information that can be provided voluntarily.

Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether you must provide this information (and if so, what the possible consequences are of not complying), or whether you have a choice.

Most of the data we hold about you will come from you, but we may also hold data about you from:

- Local authorities
- Government departments or agencies
- Police forces, courts or tribunals

9. How we store this data

We keep personal information about you while you are visiting an academy/the trust. We may also keep it beyond this if this is necessary. Our Trust Retention policy and schedule sets out how long we keep information about suppliers.

We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal information from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed.

We will dispose of your personal data securely when we no longer need it.

10. Who we share data with

We do not share information about you without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Where it is legally required or necessary (and it complies with UK data protection law), we may share personal information about you with:

- Local Authorities - to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with them, such as where visitor information is relevant to a safeguarding concern

- The Department for Education - to meet our statutory obligations to share certain information with them
- Educators and examining bodies - necessary in the performance of our education function
- Our regulator, Ofsted - to enable it to evaluate the education we provide, which is in the public interest
- Suppliers and service providers - to enable them to provide the service we have contracted them for
- Our auditors - to demonstrate that we have conducted appropriate due diligence during procurement processes
- Your family or representatives - in case of emergencies such as a health matter
- Health authorities – to assist where there are legal obligations
- Security organisations - with regard to legal or safeguarding investigations and to assist in crime prevention, detection and prevention of fraud
- Health and social welfare organisations - to support a legal entitlement
- Professional advisers and consultants - to support a legal entitlement and to assist with insurance claims
- Police forces, courts, tribunals - in order to uphold law and order
- Professional bodies - to verify information for legal purposes
- The organisation/company you are representing – to verify business interests and to verify information for legal purposes

11. Transferring data internationally

Where we transfer your personal data to a third-party country or territory, we will do so in accordance with UK data protection law.

In cases where we have to set up safeguarding arrangements to complete this transfer, you can get a copy of these arrangements by contacting us.

12. Your rights

How to access personal information we hold about you

You have a right to make a ‘subject access request’ to gain access to personal information that we hold about you.

If you make a subject access request, and if we do hold information about you, we will (subject to any exemptions that may apply):

- Give you a description of it
- Tell you why we are holding and processing it, and how long we will keep it for
- Explain where we got it from, if not from you
- Tell you who it has been, or will be, shared with
- Let you know whether any automated decision-making is being applied to the data, and any consequences of this

- Give you a copy of the information in an intelligible form

You may also have the right for your personal information to be transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances.

If you would like to make a request, please complete the Subject Access Request section on the Trust's website or contact us (see 'Contact us' below).

13. Your other rights regarding your data

Under data protection law, you have certain rights regarding how your personal data is used and kept safe. For example, you have the right to:

- Object to our use of your personal data
- Prevent your data being used to send direct marketing
- Object to, and challenge the use of, your personal data for decisions being taken by automated means (by a computer or machine, rather than by a person)
- In certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data corrected
- In certain circumstances, have the personal data we hold about you deleted or destroyed, or restrict its processing
- Withdraw your consent, where you previously provided it for the collection, processing and transfer of your personal data for a specific purpose
- In certain circumstances, be notified of a data breach
- Make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office
- Claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the data protection regulations

To exercise any of these rights, please contact us (see 'Contact us' below).

14. Complaints

We take any complaints about our collection and use of personal information very seriously.

If you think that our collection or use of personal information is unfair, misleading or inappropriate, or have any other concern about our data processing, please raise this with us in the first instance.

Alternatively, you can make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office:

- Report a concern online at <https://ico.org.uk/make-a-complaint/>
- Call 0303 123 1113
- Or write to: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF

15. Contact us

Our data protection officer is Kathryn Smith, Director of Governance and Admissions

However, our trust has a data protection manager who has day-to-day responsibility for data protection issues in the Trust.

If you have any questions or concerns, or would like more information about anything mentioned in this privacy notice, please contact them: Data Protection Manager, privacy@brightonacademiestrust.org.uk
