

Activities	Inputs	Measuring Impacts
Academic
Native American Liaisons	One elementary, one middle, and one high school Native American Liaison who coordinate with students, families, Los Lunas Schools staff, Pueblo of Isleta Department of Education, and community to increase student and parent engagement, attendance, and academic achievement.	Number of parent contacts, number of student contacts, academic testing proficiency rates, drop-out, and attendance rates.
Native Language Program	Los Lunas Schools partners with the Pueblo of Isleta Language Department and UNM-Valencia Campus to provide Tiwa I and II at Valencia High School and Los Lunas High School. It is offered as a dual credit class and counts towards graduation as the student's second language. Students can earn the State Seal of Bilingualism-Biliteracy on their diploma. The Pueblo of Isleta and the Department of Education certify and compensate Tiwa teachers who instruct the course.	Number of students enrolled in the Native Language courses and number of students earning the State Seal of Bilingualism-Biliteracy on their diploma.
Fieldtrips	Various academic fieldtrips offered. Suggested but not limited to the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Native Youth Empowerment Symposium hosted by Tiwa Lending Services and the Pueblo of Isleta. Mid and high school Native American students attend to learn about financial literacy, money management, and entrepreneurship. • Junior and senior Native American students are taken to tour college campuses. 	Number of field trips and students attending the fieldtrips.
Credit Recovery Assistance	Teacher provided at the POI/DOE to assist with credit recovery after school.	Number of students in attendance.
Culturally Responsive Teaching and Curriculum	Native American Liaisons provide professional development to teachers regarding topics such as cultural sensitivity (as requested), Indian Education Act, Yazzie/Martinez Lawsuit. Liaisons also	Number of teacher contacts, number of times that professional development occurs, number of classroom presentations.

	collaborate with teachers regarding curriculum and provide presentations or supplemental materials with Indigenous perspective.
Culturally Related Activities
Native American Liaisons	One elementary, one middle, and one high school Native American Liaison who provide cultural related activities/programs at the schools to support the academic programs, Native language programs, and culturally responsive teaching and learning strategies. Activities to promote cultural awareness, celebration of differences, and Indigenous pride.	Number and type of activities and how many students participate.
Native Language Program	Los Lunas Schools partners with the Pueblo of Isleta Language Department and UNM-Valencia Campus to provide Tiwa I and II at Valencia High School and Los Lunas High School. It is offered as a dual credit class and counts towards graduation as the student's second language. Students can earn the State Seal of Bilingualism-Biliteracy on their diploma. The Pueblo of Isleta and the Department of Education certify and compensate Tiwa teachers who instruct the course.	Number of students enrolled in the Native Language courses and number of students earning the State Seal of Bilingualism-Biliteracy on their diploma.
Cultural Fieldtrips	Various cultural field trips offered. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Native Youth Empowerment Symposium hosted by Tiwa Lending Services and the Pueblo of Isleta. Mid and high school Native American students attend to learn about financial literacy, money management, and entrepreneurship. • Gathering of Nations • 7th grade students at both middle schools learn about the culture and history of American Indians through their New Mexico history class and related field trips. 	Number of field trips and students attending the fieldtrips.
Services

Coordination with the Pueblo of Isleta Department of Education, Pueblo of Isleta Truancy Department	Sharing data and referring families for appropriate identified services, to include tutoring services provided by the Pueblo of Isleta Department of Education and other tutoring services offered through the respective schools.
Backpacks	Backpacks supplied to Native American students before school begin to prepare them for the school year.	Number of backpacks given away