Battle of the Books

The time to start reading is NOW.

What is BOB?

- Battle of the Books is an optional reading competition that happens at the end of March
- Teams of 4 answer questions based on the 12 selected books.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

- Each Team will have 12 cards with the book titles and one white board and marker.
- Most questions are in the format, “In which book does...”
- Teams earn points for correct answers.

HOW DOES IT WORK? CONTINUED...

- All teams answer all questions at the same time by holding up their answers.
- Team mates collaborate on every question. No one is called on individually.
- The Preliminary Battles run Monday through Thursday with the winning team each day advancing to the Championship Battle on Friday.

No one has ever been left out of Battle of the Books because they did not have a team!

HOW ARE TEAMS FORMED?

- You can sign up in the library as a team of four.
- You can sign up with one or two friends and the librarians will find a team for you together.
- You can sign up by yourself and be placed on a team that needs you.
- You can sign up now, or wait until you find friends who are also reading.

WHAT ARE THE PRIZES?
