I am Vice President of Administration after working up from an entrance level position. I credit Miss Pollett from Heelan for a lot of my office training.

Very truly yours,
Lorraine F. Elam '66

Dear Crusader Connection,
I was surprised and elated to see an alumni newsletter '85. It's great!

Kevin A. Keane '81

This is an excellent idea!
Good job

been able to make a claim but still keep track of several people. I only went to Heelan my last two years but a good link in the chain of my education. I went to Duchesne from there, graduated from St. Mary's University in San Antonio (69) and got a Master from U. of Colorado (78). I have worked in psychology - research, teaching and therapy and most recently in business/mgmt consulting with AT&T and a variety of public and non profit corporations and govt. entities. Heelan was good for me. In spite of not turning out to be the good Catholic housewife with 2.3 children and a station wagon to transport the children, Heelan fostered values of achievement, integrity, responsibility and communication that are important to me. Thanks for still being there for others.

Berry Norton Liddell '65

I am simply delighted to receive the Crusader Update! I recall fondly many friends and faculty of Heelan. Truly, memories bridge time. Today, I have little connection with alumni. When I get the Sioux City Journal, I scan it for familiar names, sometimes guessing if one of the young people on the ball teams are children of old and dear friends. Most of the time, I'm certain they are.

Sincerely,

Judy Johnson Knight
Class of 1958

Congratulations and thank you for my copy of Crusader Connection. It's a great idea and super publication. As a member of the very first Heelan graduation class, 100 years ago, I am thinking that Heelan is getting better with age. I can take great pride in our school, and it should not be difficult to talk about her many qualities. Education, sports and physical appearance are obvious. Thank you very much and please stay around for the grandkids also.

Sincerely,

Jim Walsh '59

Dear Lacker Baemaker: 4-14-87

I was so happy to receive the Crusader Connection. Your staff put an outstanding effort towards its first publication. Congratulations! Thank you for your sacrifice years of education. Heelan prepared me well for the University of Iowa, and my career. Thank you & God Bless,

Sincerely,
Debra Collins / 1985

Just a note to complement you and the Alumni/Endowment groups for creating the Crusader Connection. It is a noteworthy issue with a great blend of the old, new and future.

Sincerely,

Friends of Heelan Ball, April 24th

The 9th Annual Friends of Heelan Ball was held April 24th, at the Marina Inn, South Sioux City, Nebraska.

Sponsored by the Heelan Parents Club, all proceeds from this annual event are used to repair and maintain the physical facilities of Bishop Heelan High School.

The Mike Day Orchestra and the Masters of Music with Tim Harrison provided 2 different types of music for the enjoyment of those in attendance. Father Verne Staphenhorst, Heelan Faculty Member, also added to the evening with one of his "special" slide presentations. The Piano Bar proved popular for those wanting to rest tired feet or exercise vocal cords. A light buffet concluded an enjoyable evening. The Bishop Heelan Swing Choir, directed by Mrs. Paula Keeler, provided additional entertainment, as well as assisting with the valet parking provided.

38th COMMENCEMENT

Baccalaureate Mass was offered with 208 graduating seniors May 20th at the Cathedral of the Epiphany. Graduation Exercises are scheduled for May 24th at the Sioux City Auditorium at 2:00 p.m.

Academic honors and scholarships are a tribute to these students for their hard work and determination, to their parents for their encouragement, and to the faculty of Bishop Heelan Catholic High School who provided the academic atmosphere in which they could develop their talents and abilities. The main goal of Bishop Heelan Catholic High School is academic excellence in a christian atmosphere.

Some interesting facts from the Class of 1986 were: 65% went to attend four-year colleges; 16% attended various two-year colleges and vocational-technical schools, including nursing programs; 10% sought employment; 4% entered the military service and 5% indicated that they were undecided.

In 1986, $502,000 in possible scholarships were offered to graduating seniors.

May He Rest In Peace!

The Diocese of Sioux City was saddened at the death of Most Rev. Frank H. Greteman, Retired Bishop of the Sioux City Catholic Diocese, March 21, 1987. Named bishop in 1970, Bishop Greteman had the rare privilege of being chosen to lead his native diocese. A native of Carroll County, Ia., he served as bishop until 1983. One of his greatest efforts was in Catholic education. He stressed the highest academic excellence while teaching the Faith in our schools.

Students Entertained By Haitian's

Heelan High students warmly received the Haitian version of French street gamins (urchins) at a recent assembly filled with song, rhythm, gymnastics and dance.

Algona native Michael Gielenfeld, who has served 11 years with the missionaries of Charity, specifically with the Brothers of Mother Teresa, has founded St. Joseph's Boys Home. With the help of St. Joseph's Church in Port-au-Prince, young boys from the street and out of detention centers are recruited on a voluntary basis to live at the home. There are now 32 boys at the center, using their education in art, music and religion to form the basis for the Resurrection Theater Company.

Sister Jeanette McCarthy, a member of the Heelan Business Education Department and herself an Algona native, as well as members of St. Joseph Parish sponsored the group while they were in Sioux City.

Report On the Heelan Retreats

Heelan retreats were held this year on March 26th and 27th, the first time in about six years that Heelan students had a retreat. Talks and activities took place in the school gymnasium, involving the Heelan faculty and about 50 parents and other adults from the parishes with students at Heelan. Themes and topics for the retreats focused on Renew Season II, looking at our need for conversion and responding to the Lord's call.

The days began with introductions and ice breaking activities in the small groups. A panel discussion sharing personal conversion experiences followed, presented by Kuemper High School students from Carroll. Earlier this year, Heelan students had gone down to Kuemper to speak at their retreats. After the panel, small groups discussed conversion to the Lord in their lives, then presented their discussion to the large group through the making and sharing of posters. Further faith sharing questions followed in small groups, after which students were given the chance to voice anything on their mind about the day through an open microphone period.

After lunch, time was spent focusing on how Heelan as a Christian body could work at conversion in an overall way. Ideas were shared and recorded in the small groups, and they shared with the entire group. The recorded ideas were further passed on to the student council for further discussion.

All in all, students and adults responded favorably to the retreats. People were able to openly share and receive feedback from adults and peers. People were challenged in their faith lives and given some directions. We plan on keeping the retreats as a yearly event at Heelan! The retreats were planned and sponsored by the Heelan Spiritual Life Office.

Sister Ramona Chosen!

On July 6th, Sister Ramona will attend a seminar on the Lewis & Clark Expedition. This grant is funded by the National Endowment for the Humanities. Gonzaga University in Spokane, Washington is the sponsor site. This seminar will include lectures and actual tours of the exact trail made famous by Lewis & Clark. 15 people out of 150 applicants were chosen. Sister will return July 31st, 1987.

TRINITY'S STATE MEDLEY RELAY CHAMPIONS.

The best medley relay squad in the state of Iowa in 1945 was a quartet of Trinity High School men. Their photo was featured in the Sioux City Relays Program held April 17 & 18 at Roberts Stadium. Pictured left to right: John Dougherty, Bob McDougall, Tom Donohue and Connie Callahan. Dougherty, Donohue, and Callahan were seniors, McDougall a sophomore. The meet was held in Ames and their time was 3:40.8. Trinity closed it's doors in 1949 and Heelan was opened the fall of that same year. The school mascot of "Crusaders" continued at Heelan.

HEELAN IS . . .

Sincerely Yours

Sister Carmelita

Three times I was sent to teach at Heelan. Each time was a pleasure, but the third was indeed the charm. From '50 to '54 there were truly blessings galore. From '60 to '69 everything seemed to turn out fine. But from '74 to '87 it was just a little bit of heaven.

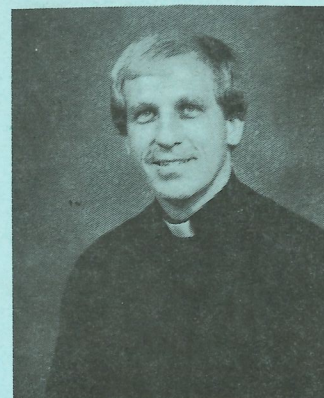

Although I loved my Latin classes and enjoyed hearing a greeting as far as a block away: "Salve, Soror!" (Hi, sister!), I've learned to love the library. It's a place where you're serving all day long. When I became a Servant of Mary, I never realized how happy I would be serving Mary's children. In other words, to wait on our friendly students at Heelan is for me — just a little bit of heaven.

Sister Mary Carmelita, O.S.M.

Being a teacher at Heelan is very much a "dejavu" experience for me! That's only natural, however, since I was here before as a student from 1969-1973. In some ways, it seems a bit strange to be part of a system that in my earlier years was part of my growing up experience.

I was happy with the Heelan of 1969-1973, but I think I'm even happier with the Heelan of 1987. Along with now being on the other side of the desk, I see many positive improvements over the Heelan of earlier years. I think today there are many more healthy teacher-student relationships. We were a different time in the early 70's, but I don't remember teachers and students relating as well. More importantly, however, I think the students of today are much more open to their faith and willing not only to be challenged by it, but willing to live by it. As the Heelan Spiritual Director, I have been deeply moved by the number of students getting involved this year in Search and TEC retreat programs, the school retreats, parish programs and other diocesan programs. There is a hunger and there is a willingness to get involved. I really don't remember this being the case 14 years ago when I graduated from Heelan!

My observation in returning to Heelan is that we are much more a Christian environment, much more in tune with what we were established to be!
