JUNE ISSUE
VOLUME FOUR NO.2

12th Annual Friends of Heelan Ball

GARY & MARY DONAHUE UHL '68 were one of the many couples on the Parent's Board that assisted at the ticket table.

Tom & Mary O'Connor, past parents, appear to be having an enjoyable evening.

JOHN KEANE '80 took advantage of the valet parking provided by Swing Choir member, JASON OSBURN '94.

On May 4, 1990, alumni and friends of Heelan gathered at the Sioux City Convention Center for 4 hours of entertainment, dancing and refreshments.

The Mike Day Orchestra, and an expanded dance floor, provided music for some fancy steppers, while Tim Harrison, disc jockey, provided rock & roll music upstairs for the younger crowd.

A break from dancing was available with the multi-media slide presentation done by Fr. Verne Stapenhorst, Heelan faculty.

The Heelan Swing Choir, under the direction of Russ Clifford, Choral Director, also provided sensational entertainment during the evening, as well as helping with the valet parking and escorting of guests.

General chairpersons Gaylen and Kathy TenHulzen and Ticket chairpersons Chuck and Carol Happe were only 4 of the many volunteers of the Parent's Club that spent hours planning and coordinating the Ball. THANKS TO ALL WHO HELPED! YOU DID A SUPER JOB!!!

For the 2nd year, the Endowment Auction, under the direction of Mrs Kitty Pollanch and her able volunteers, raised over $6,000 for the Endowment with items ranging from jewelry to Iowa Football tickets and a darling puppy.

Everyone's help in whatever way it was contributed, will help keep the BALL ROLLING AT HEELAN.

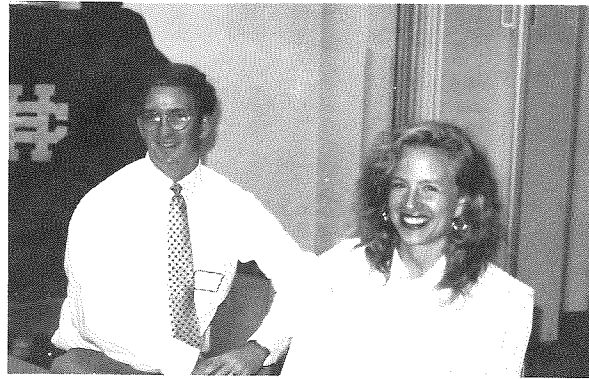

MICHAEL CURRAN '57 & wife Judy, (Parent Board Members) display items that were available for the Endowment Auction.

Crusaders Continue to Make "Connections"

With the arrival of the spring weather in Iowa, the alumni office continued to host area alumni parties. Beginning 2 years ago, there have been alumni get-togethers sponsored in 11 cities from Minneapolis to Dallas - Chicago to Phoenix. For everyone, from the Heelan representative, to the particular area alums, it is an opportunity to meet old classmates, make new friends in the area and renew the Heelan "Pride" for everyone. Be Alert - we may be in your area during the 1990-91 school year.

KEN LAFLEUR '85 did some catching up with classmate SHELLY IRWIN '85 during the evening.

ANN MILLER '87 was the most recent graduate attending the Denver gathering for Heelan alumni.

LARRY KIMSEY '50 & wife Phyllis were the winners of the Heelan drawing at Denver.

Phoenix Alumni Gather

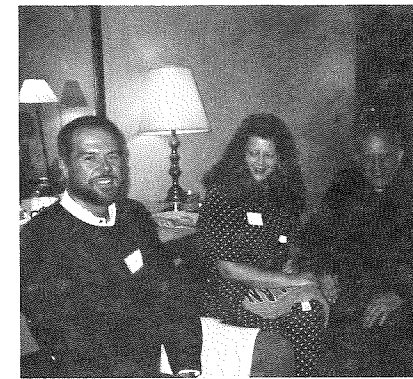

Eight members of the Donahue family, who spanned the years '68 to '81, represented Bishop Heelan High School at an alumni gathering held in Phoenix in April. What had been planned as a family visit, was turned into a school reunion with the coordinated efforts of Mary Uhl '68 and Ken Donahue '70. The Donahue clan provided the "spirit" for an enjoyable evening of reminiscing for all attending.

MARK '81; MARY BOUCHER DONAHUE '70; MARY '68; KEN '70; CINDY '76; RITA '78; TERRY '72; PAT '74 were all smiles for the Heelan Alumni in Phoenix.

By dark of night and light of day, Fr. With slides to show Heelan today, scrap books & year books to remind alumni of years past and the opportunity for alumni in specific areas to get-together, we all have fun. Thanks to those who helped organize parties and attended them. Heelan alumni are great!

CHUCK HARDY '74 seems proud to show his new sweatshirt to ROBERT RENFRO '72 & Mirtha.

Heelan Students Surpass Goal

With the combined common effort of students, faculty and staff, parents and friends, the 19th Annual Catholic Digest Magazine Drive was a success. With prize incentives, the prospect of a "jeans day" and a "free day" from school the students of Bishop Heelan High School obtained the goal of $85,000 in new and renewal subscriptions for the 1990 effort. A record total of $108,818 was sold this year, of which 40% is received by Heelan.

In 1989, the profits were used to help with parking lot repaving; a light board and electrical work for the stage and little theater; repainting of steel window frames and vehicle replacement. The 1990 profits are proposed to be used for floor coverings in the building and van replacement.

Mr. Walt Whitecotton, Representative of the QSP Family Reading Program, has a "happy face" as he tabulates a day's receipts during the magazine drive.

Heelan Hosts 8th Grade Math Contest

The 17th annual Heelan 8th grade Math Contest was held on April 25, 1990. This test is made by the Heelan Calculus students. They decide on the type of test they want to give and then divide into groups to set up the day and to make the test. This years contest consisted of two parts. Two students of a team took a relay test while an individual of the team was taking a set of four tests on specific topics. The Calculus students then give the tests, correct them, and award medals to the winners. The event gives the Calculus students an opportunity to see how the other side of a test looks. (It opens some eyes.) The event also allows 8th graders from the area Catholic schools to compete against one another academically.

The team of Anne Brucken, Katie Kass and Tanya Mears of St. Michael's (Leeds) was the overall winner. Seven teams participated in this year's contest.

HEELAN IS . . .

Sincerely Yours

May 1, 1990

Greetings to Heelan Alumni everywhere.

What a grace it is to be able to "reach out and touch" those of you who have been a part of my life over the last decade and to let you know that you still remain in my memory and in my prayers. The Crusader Connection is forever!

It has been a privilege to have taught quite a few of you since I first arrived at Heelan in the fall of 1978. At that time I had just come back to my home town and birthplace in order to be near my elderly, widowed mother. It was fun for me to return to Sioux City, to renew old acquaintances, and to experience having students in class who were the children of my former classmates at East High. I was and still am happy to be a Black Raider turned Crusader.

That first year, in case you have forgotten, I was the cart lady — whizzing along from homeroom 422 to World Literature in 425, careening down the corridor to American Drama and Poetry in 416, continuing on to British Literature/Term Paper in yet another room and then returning to 422 for British Fiction. It was quite a challenge to be such a peripatetic professor, but the next year I settled down in room 403 and taught a complete load of British Literature/Term Paper classes.

My life, however, was not meant to be characterized by sameness. There followed a nine month stay in Italy at our Servants of Mary generalate while writing our new Constitutions. Then, I was gone from Heelan for three years while serving as provincial of our American province. Since 1984 I have been back in these hallowed, albeit hectic halls, teaching a variety of classes in English — from ancient to contemporary, from British to World to American — now from fulltime to part-time in order to care more completely for my very frail mother. It keeps me busy.

I am sure that your decade has been full of changes and challenges, too. It is my hope that your years at Heelan have given you a firm foundation, an education that will help you to make moral choices in our complex yet beautiful world. May you always retain your youthful enthusiasm, warm friendliness and love of life that characterized your high school years. And, during this lovely month dedicated to Our Blessed Mother Mary, remember to pray to her, perhaps using these words of Edgar Allan Poe:

"In joy and woe - in good and ill -
Mother of God, be with me still!"

Sister Joy, O.S.M.
