Class of 1950

The Catholic High School Class of 1950 met in August for yet another 1st...a 40th Reunion, the first in the history of Bishop Heelan Catholic High School.

"Give Today For Their Tomorrow" is a phrase shown in the 1950 Shield. And give they did—establishing a unified school system; establishing friendships where there were none; establishing the current name. The Class of 1950 set the basis for the high standards that are evident at Bishop Heelan today, both in scholastics and in extra curricular activities.

To all of the CLASS OF 1950 accept the alumni's thanks for being a founding part of our Heelan Pride.

The "Chorus Line" for the Class of '50 was comprised of Mary A. Schneiders Propeck, Charlotte McInerney Jacobsma, Pauline Saunders Guilluame & Mary Chicoine Donovan.

Barbara Feldehacker, Ray & Pauline Saunders Guilluame modeled the "50's T-shirt" prior to the reunion.

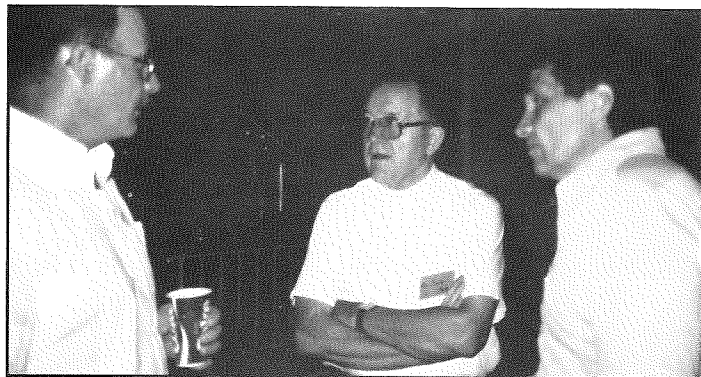

Msgr. A. Behrens, homeroom teacher in 1950, chatted with Bob Curry & Barb Perrin Maltby after offering the class mass.

The Alumni Office extends a THANK YOU to Peg Delaney & the Class of '50 Committee; Sue Lilla & the Class of '60 Committee; Karen Fry & the Class of '70 Committee; Robin Marx & the Class of '80 Committee for their organization and help with each reunion.

Renewing the "nostalgia of the era" and creating another memory in friendship is part of the Heelan alumni family.

Applause please!!!

Special recognition is given to the Class of '60 for the $2,000 they raised during their reunion for the Heelan Endowment. Series Comes To An End

This fall marked the 43rd and the last meeting between two perennial parochial powers in Class 4-A football. The Heelan-Dowling series which began in 1950 ended with the September 8th game as a result of conference restructuring. The Maroons and Crusaders have met in four state play-off matches and, although Dowling was the winner in the final regular season contest (7-0), Heelan has 23-21 lead in the history of the series. The Carroll Kuemper Knights have also been included in schedule restructuring and played the Crusaders for the last time this fall in a 47-13 HEELAN victory. They will be replaced in the Crusader schedule in 91-92 by Fort Dodge.

A TIME TO MOURN

Sr. Ruth M. DeWitte, O.S.F. died on Friday, August 31, 1990, at the age of 63 following a brief illness. Visitation and scripture services were held on September 2nd at the Cathedral of the Epiphany parish hall with a funeral mass offered that evening at the Cathedral. Additional services were held at Mount St. Francis Mother House in Dubuque, Ia. with Fr. Paul Eisele and 6 representatives of the student body attending.

Born in Jasper, MN, Sr. Ruth came to Sioux City in the late 1940's and worked in the laboratories of both St. Joseph and St. Vincent Hospitals. She entered the order of Sisters of St. Francis in 1951 and made her final profession vows in August '57. During her teaching years she was at Visitation High School in Stacyville, Walhert High School in Dubuque, St. Mary's High School in Remsen, Immaculate Conception High School in Dubuque & Briar Cliff College in Sioux City. For the past 19 years, Sister was a member of the science department at Bishop Heelan High School, serving as department head the majority of that time. Sister and her twinkling smile will be missed by us all, but the memories of her will continue to fill the corners of Heelan for many years.

A memorial to Sister Ruth has been established at Heelan.

HEELAN ALUMNI ON STAGE

Denes Striny '61 continues to pursue a professional career with the opera. Following graduation from the Catholic University of America, Denes served as Head of the Music Department at Trinity College in Washington. After two years teaching, he made his professional debut in Lucrezia Borgia with the Dallas Opera. Since that time, he has performed with the Washington Opera, Virginia Opera, Providende Opera, Wolf Trap Opera, Arkansas Opera Theater, Santa Fe Opera and Long Beach Opera. Roles have included Dick Johnson in Fanciulla del West, Radames in Aida, Enzo in Giocoda, Cavaradossi in Tosca and currently Don Jose in Carmen which will have him appearing in London, Tokyo, Melbourne and Sydney. In 1986, Denes made his European debut with Britains Opera North as Walter in Meistersinger. Upcoming performances include Pallione in Norma with the Minnesota Opera in St. Paul, Tosca in Orlando and Atlanta and Carmen in Madison Square Garden.

"The Little Mermaid" continues to make a big splash throughout the country for director Ron Clements '71. Not only did it receive acclaim in the U.S., it was shown at the Cannes Film Festival this spring. It has been the first Disney cartoon to go from the theaters to videocassette...receiving the Academy Awards for the Best Song and the Best Musical Score have been a help to its success. Ron has already begun work on a new release...Aladdin. Like most animated features, it may take 3 years to complete.

At Christmas time watch for the movie release of "Chains of Gold" starring John Travolta. Julie Verzani Marr '78 is an extra in several scenes. She is currently casting for a second movie to be filmed in the Nebraska area. Julie and husband live near Disney World in Orlando, Florida. In march they had their 3rd son, Namod Taylor.

Summer Border Experience

Sister Jeanette McCarty (top left in photo) was one of 15 Dubuque Presentation Sisters to participate in a "Border Awareness" experience along the Rio Grande Valley border between Texas & Mexico during July. Besides studying the border culture, they experienced various aspects of the culture that affect the poor. The children included with Sister in the photo are from Colonia Roma, near Reynosa, Mexico. Families are without water, electricity or sanitation. Many are employed in American factories just below the border with the cheap labor force available. According to Sister, her favorite experience was visiting the refugee sanctuary of Casa Oscar Romero, operated near Brownsville, TX by the diocese. Many Central American teenagers have come there to escape the fighting and turmoil in their home lands. While inside, asylum is offered, and if funds are available, the legal process of obtaining legalization to remain in the U.S. is started. Approximately 50% are deported back to their homelands.

HEELAN IS ...

Sincerely Yours

When asked to reflect on my 14 years as a Crusader science teacher, many things come to mind. Probably the most important is the feeling of community that exists in the Heelan family. The contacts with the parents, fellow teachers, staff and students were among my most rewarding experiences. I often thought that this feeling of community was an accident, but through the years, I saw generations of people as they grew and raised their children in this hand of God.

This gives Heelan a sense of continuity and family, a community with a history of faith. With the guidance of the diocese of Sioux City and good people, Heelan has maintained its connection with Christ and stands as a noble institution for the christian development of young people.

Every crusade has a cause and Heelan Pride permeates every activity. In a time when religion is being systematically removed from the "public" sector, Heelan stands as an example that has Christ's message woven through its operation. It may seem difficult to integrate Christianity into competition but I saw it done at Heelan. In our classrooms we prayed before exploring our academic talents and sought mutual respect in our intellectual rivalries. We laughed and cried at ourselves with theatrical presentations that brought the thespian, musician, and technician together. A group of unique individuals, worked together to create a quality performance. Our athletes saw their competitors as a means to make themselves better, not as a foe to be beaten. They came to respect their rivals and an attempt was made to put achievement in its proper place. Sometimes I viewed our faculty as a challenge, but that's what miracles are made of. I found many blessings at Heelan, but the best was the way relationships between staff, student, parents and administrator attained excellence while recognizing the presence of Christ among us.

I will always feel part of the Heelan family. As the faces change from year to year there will always be a common crusade that will live on. I was part of that crusade for over a decade. In many ways the values of Heelan have shaped who I am. I am grateful for the chance to work at Heelan and will forever be a "CRUSADER".
