

Turlock Unified School District
Proposition 28 – Arts and Music in Schools (AMS)
2023-2024 Annual Report

1. Narrative description of the Prop 28 arts education program(s) funded.

Pitman High School and Turlock High School expanded opportunities for students participating in music programs to gain additional instruction through the addition of classified staff. Between the two schools, eight (8) part-time music assistants were hired to support students in Marching Band, Symphonic Band, Concert Band, Jazz Band, Color Guard, Drumline, and related competitions/activities. Input was sought from the schools' music community, particularly in collaboration with parents, booster clubs, music teachers, and administrators. Supports were provided during the regular instructional day, after school, and on weekends.
