Literary Quotes

"Messages from Everywhere / light up our backyard. / A bird that flew five thousand miles / is trilling six bright notes. / This bird flew over mountains and valleys / and tiny dolls and pencils / of children I will never see."

Nonfiction Book Pick

Dancing at the Pity Party by Tyler Feder

The drawings and colors in this heartfelt memoir are whimsical and inviting, and the author's voice is warm, humorous, and moving. As she tells the tragic story of her mother's untimely death from cancer at age 47, Feder opens up about her own fears, insecurities, and hopes. She was 19 when her mom died and as she struggled to adjust to college life, she also had to deal with her mother's devastating physical decline. Heart wrenching but inspiring.

Fiction Book Pick

Miracle Creek by Angie Kim

Young, Park, and Mary Yoo are struggling to make ends meet in America. While Mary finishes high school, her parents work to make their new business venture succeed. Miracle Submarine offers hyperbaric oxygen treatment to children with special needs and others who are candidates for the therapy. When a tragic explosion occurs during a session, the Yooos and their clients are left reeling from the aftermath. A riveting courtroom drama that explores loyalty and grief.
