

More than 100 turn out for CSO job fair

| March 23, 2018

BY HARRY DEITZ

FOR THE NEWS-ITEM

Harry Morgan, left, SNAP/outreach coordinator for CSO, said the sponsoring organization for CSO Job Fair 2018 was pleased with the response by area residents and the 26 vendors who set up displays and offered information of employment opportunities to visitors. Shown in this photo is Morgan talking to Brenda Dries, one of the many visitors to the job fair.

PAXINOS — A turnout of more than 100 area residents seeking information on job opportunities from area employers attended the Central Susquehanna Opportunities 2018 Job Fair Thursday afternoon at

HARRY DEITZ/FOR THE NEWS-ITEM Employment opportunities with Central Susquehanna Intermediate Unit Workforce Outreach are explained by Karla Procopio, left, to Susan Nicholson, of Shamokin, during the CSA Job Fair 2018 Thursday afternoon at Masser's Banquet Hall in Paxinos.

Masser's Banquet Hall, Paxinos.

Twenty-six vendors were represented at special booths and employers were on hand to explain their employment opportunities to the crowd during the event, which was held from noon to 3 p.m.

HARRY DEITZ/FOR THE NEWS-ITEM Marjorie Swartzlander, left, seeks information from Kathy Vernet, center, and Lori Kriebel of Strong Spas, Point Township, for employment opportunities during the CSA Job Fair 2018 Thursday afternoon at Masser's Banquet Hall in Paxinos.

"We are very pleased with the response of vendors and prospective job seekers," said Harry Morgan, representing the sponsoring organization. "The response was great considering Wednesday's snow storm."

Visitors

PHOTOS BY HARRY DEITZ/FOR THE NEWS-ITEM Representatives of Reinhart Foods talks to several prospective job seekers during the CSA Job Fair 2018 Thursday afternoon at Masser's Banquet Hall in Paxinos.

to the job fair were provided details of job opportunities from representatives of businesses throughout the Northumberland County area. A number of those seeking jobs filled out applications during their visit to the job fair.