Rogue River School District 35

Code: JECB-AR(2)
Revised/Reviewed: 9/21/21

Interdistrict Contract with Students

The Rogue River School District has set minimum standards of behavior and/or attendance for students wishing to attend via interdistrict transfer. Violations of these standards may result in revocation of consent to attend RRSD per board policy JECB.

Attendance

All students attending the Rogue River School District via an interdistrict transfer must adhere to the following minimum attendance expectations.

> Interdistrict students will maintain an attendance rate of 90% or higher. If an extended absence is anticipated, the student and their guardian will notify the school ahead of the absence. Students falling below 90% attendance may be subject to revocation of interdistrict transfer consent.

> Any interdistrict student that has 10 or more consecutive absences, will be unenrolled and consent to re-enroll may be denied.

Behavior

All students attending The Rogue River School District via an interdistrict transfer must adhere to the following minimum behavior expectations.

> Any interdistrict student that receives a major behavior infraction or excessive minor behavioral infractions resulting in suspension may be subject to immediate revocation of interdistrict transfer consent.
