Good news!

Cheryl/ Brian:

Please feel free to share the following good news with the Board of Education at an upcoming meeting:

Former graduate Lindsay Proctor was a winner of the Fall 2017 Big 12 Champions for Life Award. Lindsay is a student at West Virginia University.

She earned a 1000$ stipend to award to a teacher at the high school of her choice. Lindsay decided to award the stipend to Mr. Tim Williamson.

Mr. Williamson has elected to use the award to purchase appliances for the life skills classroom. These include the following:

- Refridgerator
- Blenders (2)
- Stabilization Balls

Please read the summary below of the Big 12 Championships for Life campaign:

The Big 12 Champions for Life campaign highlights student-athlete's life-changing stories through the opportunities that a scholarship provides. The young women and men given the opportunity to compete in their chosen sport embody the defining characteristics of a champion: leadership, perseverance, community service, and discipline. Inspiring stories of student-athletes representing each of the conference's ten universities will be shared throughout the 2017-2018 academic year. Serving as a role model both on the field and in the classroom, each of the student-athletes selected in the campaign truly encapsulate what being a champion for life is all about.

Mr. Williamson's name was highlighted on the Scoreboard at the Big 12 Championship Game in Dallas, Texas on December 2, 2017. We thank the Big 12 and Lindsay Proctor for their donation, and congratulate Mr. Williamson for this honor.

Donation:

Former graduate Lindsay Proctor was a winner of the Fall 2017 Big 12 Champions for Life Award. Lindsay is a student at West Virginia University.

She earned a 1000$ stipend to award to a teacher at the high school of her choice. Lindsay decided to award the stipend to Mr. Tim Williamson.

Mr. Williamson has elected to use the award to purchase appliances for the life skills classroom. These include the following:

- Refridgerator
- Blenders (2)
- Stabilization Balls

Please read the summary below of the Big 12 Championships for Life campaign:

The Big 12 Champions for Life campaign highlights student-athlete's life-changing stories through the opportunities that a scholarship provides. The young women and men given the opportunity to compete in their chosen sport embody the defining characteristics of a champion: leadership, perseverance, community service, and discipline. Inspiring stories of student-athletes representing each of the conference's ten universities will be shared throughout the 2017-2018 academic year. Serving as a role model both on the field and in the classroom, each of the student-athletes selected in the campaign truly encapsulate what being a champion for life is all about.

Grand Island Central School District Board of Education Meeting Coversheet

Mr. Williamson's name was highlighted on the Scoreboard at the Big 12 Championship Game in Dallas, Texas on December 2, 2017. We thank the Big 12 and Lindsay Proctor for their donation, and congratulate Mr. Williamson for this honor.
