

For General and
Special Education
Teachers and Paraprofessionals

Social Skills Training

Social Skills Training (SST) can be used to address foundational social skills such as imitation, initiating interactions, play skills, and emotional regulation. SST is group or individual instruction designed to teach learner's ways to successfully participate in their contextually appropriate interactions with others.

March 20, 2025
3:15 PM - 4:30 PM
Virtual

Register Here