

Career & Technical Education

Graphic Design/Advertising Art

DESCRIPTION:

Graphic Design is the craft of creating visual content to communicate a message. In this pathway, students begin with the fundamentals of graphic design and build on their experience and technical skills as they advance from layouts and lettering to creating their own logos and advertisements. Advanced Graphic Design students will showcase their project through several digital platforms and can apply for an internship. Google UX Design Professional certificate option available during the two-year pathway.
