

Middle Division History Teacher

Who We Are

A faith-based independent school located in Rancho Santa Margarita, St. John's Episcopal School is committed to the full intellectual, spiritual, and physical development of students from two years old through eighth grade. Our integrated, project-based program focuses on STEAM, student engagement, character education, and leadership development in a nurturing learning environment, cultivating students who joyfully embrace lives of service and purpose.

Our Ideal Candidate

St. John's seeks an innovative, exemplary History Teacher who is deeply committed to educational best practices. This is an Academic School Year position and will report to the Middle & Elementary Division Principal. The duties listed below are representative of the general duties of the role and are not exhaustive; additional duties and responsibilities may be assigned.

The Middle School History Teacher will instruct students in local, state, national, and global history such that students will learn to critically analyze historical events and figures to provide context for modern times. The history Teacher will facilitate the growth of students in a student-centered, developmentally appropriate environment focusing on research-based, best practices following a differentiated, balanced curriculum that teaches students how to create, critique, evaluate, and analyze history. The history teacher is an essential member of the curriculum development team. While developing and maintaining positive relationships with students, parents, and faculty members, the middle school teacher will recognize and coach the social-emotional needs of each student.
