Week of March 18th, 2024

THIS WEEK AT ST. AGNES

St. Patrick's Day

St. Agnes students celebrated St. Patrick, the patron saint of Ireland who is credited with bringing Christianity to the island. It is believed he used shamrocks to symbolize and help explain the holy trinity to the pagans he converted to Christianity at the time.

1st Grade plant graphing

Our 1st graders learned how to grow their plants and keep track of their progress using graphs.

2nd Grade Communion Retreat

Our 2nd grade students had their retreat to prepare for their First Reconciliation and First Communion. Their parents were invited to act out the Last Supper and join for an activity. Please keep our 2nd graders in your prayers as they prepare to receive their Sacraments.

3rd Grade Family Mass

3rd grade students attended their Sunday Family Mass as a class. They had the chance to sing in the choir and read during the mass.

Math Students

March 14th is Pi Day

a celebration of the ratio of a circle's circumference diameter

$\pi = 3.1415926\dots$

and on till

7th Grade Immaculata La Salle Visit

HOME OF THE ROYALS

Our 7th grade class had the opportunity to visit and take a guided tour of Immaculata La Salle High School.

Next school year as 8th graders, these students will begin the application process at each of the prospective high schools they hope to attend in the near future.

St. Agnes Alumni Class of 2020

The St. Agnes alumni class of 2020 reunited to commemorate the end of an era as they prepare to graduate from high school and head off to college. It was a special day to celebrate the lifelong bond they created during their decade at St. Agnes. They kicked off the festivities with a beautiful mass and blessing by Father Foltyn at St. Agnes, followed by dinner & dancing at the Yacht Club. Mr. B was the honored surprise guest who delivered an inspirational speech to the kids and shared a video with photos of them throughout the years. They reminisced about the good memories & experiences they shared and looked forward to continuing their friendships in this next stage in their life.

St. Agnes Bears In Sports

Girls Flag Football

Our girls varsity flag football team recently played against Holy Rosary and won 12-6. They are 2-2 for the season.

Girls Volleyball

Our girls volleyball team continues to play their hearts out and recently had split matches against Immaculada Conception winning one game and losing the other.
