

Enrollment Information Supplement

Our Mission: Missouri Military Academy empowers young men to unlock their potential through a program of academic excellence, character and social development, and leadership training within a structured environment.

A. Electronic Communication and Billing Procedures

Missouri Military Academy uses email as our primary means to send information to parents.

1. Website

The MMA website is a source for all event information, registration, and payment options. Our parent page can be found at <https://www.missourimilitaryacademy.org/parents>, where you will find helpful resources, including information about the MMA Parents Committee.

2. Stay Connected

Email is our official method of communication with parents. To help you stay informed, you will receive regular communication via email from the Academy, including monthly parent newsletters with information regarding the latest MMA news, events, and furlough transportation. Visit <https://www.missourimilitaryacademy.org/parents/stay-connected> for a list of resources to stay connected with the Academy. The page includes information on joining the private parents Facebook Group Parents and more.

3. Grades Online

Grades online can be accessed through your Blackbaud account. This is the account you set up when you submitted your son's application for admission. The link to log into your Blackbaud account is copied below: <https://missourimilitaryacademy.myschoolapp.com/ap...> Please bookmark and save this link. This is where you will access your cadet's grades and view other important information.

4. Finance

The business office will send notices and electronic statements related to your cadet's tuition, fees, and incidental expenses via Tuition Management. These are emailed near the 25th of each month. All payments must be made through this program and can be made by e-check, debit card, or credit card. Any credit card payment made toward tuition will incur a 3.0 % convenience fee. A fee of $50 will be charged on any payment returned because of non-sufficient funds.

B. Incidental Expenses

1. Spending Money

Families may provide their cadets with access to spending money. MMA suggests providing the cadet with a prepaid debit or credit card. Cadets can use these forms of payment in the Quartermaster Store and Canteen. The business office will not issue cash or cash checks for cadets. Cadets are not authorized to have more than $50 cash in their possession at any time.

2. Quartermaster Store (QM)

Cadets may requisition essential items through the Quartermaster Store because of loss, unserviceability, earned awards, or special items. The charges for the items will be invoiced to the parents on your monthly statement from the business office.

G. Additional Property Information

1. Cell Phones

While not required or needed, the use of cell phones or smart watches at Missouri Military Academy is considered a privilege that is earned, and may be rescinded at any time by any staff, faculty, or coach. New cadets, while on Maroon Phase, are not authorized to use their cell phones. Cadets who bring cell phones or smart watches to campus will be required to check those devices in for safe keeping with their respective company leadership advisor (CLA) starting at 1700 on Sunday afternoons after general leave has ended and prior to the evening meal. Cadets in good standing will be allowed to check out their cell phones and smart watches at the start of general leave on Fridays after the evening meal.

2. Computers and Electronics

All cadets will be issued an MMA computer (See One-to-One Laptop Policy). Time of usage and internet access is regulated by the chief information officer. Game units are allowed; access is regulated by the commandant of cadets.

3. Eye Glasses and Contact Lenses

If glasses are worn in review formations, cadets may only wear glasses with clear lenses. Having two pairs of glasses on campus is highly suggested. Cadets wearing contact lenses should bring a spare pair of glasses.

4. Photo Identification

If your cadet travels via airline at any time during the school year (furloughs or school related trips), he will need government-issued photo identification prior to his arrival on campus.

5. Musical Instruments

Cadet musicians may bring instruments from home that they plan to use at MMA. Cadets may rent instruments from the Academy.

6. Keepsakes

Keepsakes such as rings, valuable watches or other articles of real or sentimental value should not be brought to campus. The Academy assumes no liability in case of loss or damage.

7. Property Damage

Property damage by cadets will be repaired at their expense. Where individual responsibility cannot be definitively determined, cost of repair will be prorated. The family will be charged $350 per item plus the cost of repair.

8. School Supplies

The Quartermaster Store will issue a school supply kit to all new cadets as part of their uniform package. Replacement supplies may be purchased through the Quartermaster Store. Returning cadets should bring their own supplies (the same issued to new cadets). The new cadet school supply kit issued by MMA will include the following: 1" 3-ring binder, pencil pouch, (1) mechanical pencil, (2) #2 pencils, composition notebook, (1) pack of 5-tab dividers, (2) black ink pens, (2) spiral notebooks, (1) pack of loose-leaf paper, (1) 12" ruler and (1) eraser.

9. Storage

MMA will provide storage for cadet uniforms and property over the summer months if requested by the cadet's family. Non-clothing items will be stored in facilities made available in each residence hall at no cost. Uniform items can be stored in secure facilities in Barnard Hall where they will be protected in a thermostatically controlled environment to help prevent mold and mildew. This service will require a $50 fee. Clothing bags will be available for purchase through the quartermaster on campus for $5 each. All boxes, luggage and/or clothing bags must be marked with the cadet's name on the outside. The Academy assumes no liability in case of loss or damage. Any property remaining on campus after commencement that is not placed into storage will be considered abandoned property after three weeks.

10. Contraband

Contraband is defined as any object that is prohibited for use on campus. Weapons or knives of any kind, lighters, matches, candles, laser pointers/devices regardless of classification, coffee pots, cooking/heating devices, ice coolers/chests, refrigerators, lamps, plants, fans, brooms/mops/swiffer(s) and animals are considered contraband and are not permitted.

MMA is a drug-free and tobacco-free school. Tobacco, in any form, vaping items, intoxicating beverages, controlled substances, narcotics, illegal substances, over-the-counter medications and drug paraphernalia are strictly forbidden. No protein powders or protein drinks are allowed.

11. Prescription Medications

All prescription and over-the-counter medications must be kept in the MMA Cadet Health Center. These items should be taken to the Cadet Health Center upon enrollment.

H. Health/Medical Insurance

- 1. ALL cadets must have health insurance coverage, effective 2024-2025 school year. A copy of the insurance card should be forwarded to the MMA Cadet Health Center prior to the cadet's arrival on campus. Failure to provide MMA with health insurance information will result in the Academy purchasing insurance for your cadet and billing you for the cost incurred.
- Families of cadets with out-of-Missouri State Medicare/Medicaid Insurance Plans have two options: (1) parents may transfer their out-of-Missouri State Medicare/Medicaid Insurance Plans are required to set up an MMA medical account by depositing a minimum of $350 through MMA's business department. If needed, this money will be used to pay for the costs of doctor's office visits.
- Each cadet has secondary accident coverage through the tuition, room and board fees; however, this accident insurance does not cover health or illness - related issues, such as prescription medications or emergency treatment for non-accident illnesses.

4. For International Cadets ONLY

All international cadets will have health insurance coverage provided through LewerMark International Student Health Insurance, a Missouri based company that has tailored a specific plan to meet the needs of our cadets. This is an additional fee that is billed with tuition.

I. Furlough / Leave Policies

1. Absence from Classes

An unexcused absence is defined as any absence without approval of the academic dean, the commandant, or the president. This includes leaving early and returning late from furloughs. Excessive unexcused absences could result in loss of academic credit and may be grounds for dismissal.

2. College Leave Policy (Seniors Only)

Up to five days per year are allowed for college furloughs. Three college furloughs are allowed per year and must be completed before spring break and coordinated three weeks in advance through the college and career placement office. All college furlough requests should be submitted online:

<https://www.missourimilitaryacademy.org/Parents/furlough-travel-form>. College furloughs may not be taken in conjunction with other scheduled furloughs.++

3. Emergency Furloughs

Emergency furloughs are granted only due to serious illness of the cadet or serious illness or death of a near relative or emergency at home. These furloughs must be coordinated through the commandant's office.

4. Airline Flight Arrangements

It is important that flight arrangements are made as early as possible to ensure your son can comply with the published schedule. Contact the commandant's office if you are experiencing difficulties coordinating your flight arrangements with the school calendar. Cadets departing campus early or returning late from scheduled furloughs will be charged an additional administration and management fee for unexcused absence.

5. Furlough Travel Information

Travel information, including flight details, must be submitted online for every departure and arrival to campus: <https://www.missourimilitaryacademy.org/Parents/furlough-travel-form>. Reminders will be sent to families via email.

J. One-to-One Laptop Program

1. MMA's One-to-One Laptop Program is an integral part of the Academy's delivery of an high quality education. Hardware and software consistency are necessary to ensure the success of this program.
 - a. Each cadet will be issued a school laptop. Cadets are not permitted to bring personal computers.
 - b. School issued laptops will come pre-configured with the following:
 1. Windows Operating System
 2. Microsoft Office
 3. Pre-installed Zoom, Skype, iTunes & other approved applications
 4. Limited administrative rights for cadets. This ensures that the computer is operational for optimal academic use at all times.
 - c. Normal use hardware and software issues and support are covered free of charge.
 - d. Intentional or negligent damage to a computer will result in additional charges.
 - e. Restricted computers that limit cadets' use for only academics can be requested by parents or issued at the discretion of the dean or commandant.
2. Website Categories ALWAYS Blocked by MMA's Firewall
Pornography, personals and dating apps, adult/mature content, Usenet news groups, illegal/questionable skills, gambling, illegal downloading software (P2P), pay to surf sites, Internet Watch Foundation CAIC, hacking/proxy avoidance systems, and malware.
3. Applications Blocked in the Academic Building
Social networking (Facebook, Instagram, etc.), VOIP (Skype, MSN Messenger, etc.) IM Applications (Chat/Instant Messaging, Yahoo Messenger etc.), games and gaming applications, and shopping/internet auctions (Amazon, eBay etc.).
4. Any questions regarding the One-to-One Laptop Program should be directed to the Chief Information Officer David Wilkins, David.Wilkins@MissouriMilitaryAcademy.com, (573) 581-1776 ext. 428.
