District 200 student musicians earn State honors

A total of 32 musicians from Woodstock Community Unit School District 200 were accepted into Illinois Music Education Association District 7 categories in chorus, orchestra and band.

Based on their auditions, students from Creekside Middle School, Northwood Middle School, Woodstock High School and Woodstock North High School were selected to represent District 7, which comprises most of McHenry, all of Lake and portions of Kane and DuPage counties.

“We’re very proud of our student musicians and our music faculty from all levels across the District,” Superintendent Mike Moan said. “It’s great to see so many of our students earning this opportunity.”

The following is a list of students who were selected this year by ILMEA District 7:
