The main content area is titled 'Access Tax Records in Online Account' and explains that users can view their tax records through their Online Account. It lists several benefits: finding out how much they owe, looking at payment history, seeing prior year adjusted gross income (AGI), and viewing other tax records. A 'Request Online' section provides instructions on what is needed (IRS username or ID.me account, photo ID) and what is provided (transcript types, print/download options, and identity verification). A 'Get Transcript Online' button is prominently displayed. A caution note at the bottom states that the service is for individual taxpayers to retrieve their own transcripts.

By signing this application electronically using your FSA ID (username and password) and/or any other credential or by signing a signature page and mailing it to us, YOU, THE STUDENT, certify that you

1. will use federal and/or state student financial aid only to pay the cost of attending an institution of higher education,
2. are not in default on a federal student loan or have made satisfactory arrangements to repay it,
3. do not owe money back on a federal student grant or have made satisfactory arrangements to repay it,
4. will notify your school if you default on a federal student loan, and
5. will not receive a Federal Pell Grant from more than one school for the same period of time.

By signing this application electronically using your username and password, and/or any other credential or by signing a signature page and mailing it to us, you certify that all of the information you provided is true and complete to the best of your knowledge and you agree, if asked to provide

1. information that will verify the accuracy of your completed form, and
2. U.S. or state income tax forms that you filed or are required to file.

You also certify that you understand that the secretary of education has the authority to verify information reported on your application with the Internal Revenue Service and other federal agencies.

If you sign this application or any document related to the federal student aid programs electronically using a username and password, and/or any other credential, you certify that you are the person identified by the username and password, and/or any other credential and have not disclosed that username and password, and/or any other credential to anyone else. If you purposely give false or misleading information, you may be fined up to $20,000, sent to prison, or both.

I, TestE Perez, agree to the terms outlined above.
