

Unit	Lesson	Lesson Objectives
------	--------	-------------------

Human Rights: Early 20th Century America

Segregation and Accommodation

- Analyze the Plessy v. Ferguson case and describe the ruling's effects on segregation.
- Explain the purpose for the passage of Jim Crow laws and describe the effects of these laws in the South.
- Identify Booker T. Washington and examine his approach to the issue of segregation.

Early Civil Rights Movements

- Compare and contrast the positions of Booker T. Washington and W. E. B. Du Bois with regard to civil rights.
- Explain the purpose of the NAACP and describe this organization's strategies for improving civil rights in the US.
- Identify Marcus Garvey and examine his position on civil rights, including the "Back to Africa" movement.
- Identify W. E. B. Du Bois and explain his position with regard to civil rights.

Women Win the Right to Vote

- Describe early women's rights and suffrage movements.
- Describe how new legislation increased women's political and social rights.
- Identify the contributions of individuals and groups to the women's suffrage movement.

Human Rights: Later 20th Century America

Civil Rights: Challenges and Changes

- Analyze other responses to segregation and discrimination.
- Explain early efforts to end segregation.
- Explain the nonviolent movements that began in the early civil rights movement.

Protesting to Demand Rights

- Describe strategies used by activists to win civil rights.
- Describe the process of integrating colleges and universities.
- Describe the provisions of civil rights legislation passed in the 1960s.
- Explain how some Americans resisted the civil rights movement.

Expanding Civil Rights

- Analyze how activists pursued greater civil rights for women.
- Describe how American Indians pursued greater civil rights.
- Describe how Americans pursued greater civil rights for Latinos.
- Explain how Americans with disabilities gained greater rights.

Human Rights: Perspectives on National Concerns

Civil Rights for Americans with Disabilities

- Analyze modern trends in education and healthcare for Americans with disabilities.
- Describe early policies and attitudes toward persons with disabilities in the United States.
- Describe the importance of new legislation in protecting the rights of persons with disabilities.
- Examine the role of the Kennedy administration in developing programs for, and awareness of, persons with disabilities.

Unit	Lesson	Lesson Objectives
------	--------	-------------------

The Supreme Court and the Schools

Analyze Supreme Court decisions related to due process and privacy rights for students.

Describe the Court's interpretation of affirmative action in Regents v. Bakke.

Religious Liberty in America

Analyze the cause and effects of major religious movements in US history.

Describe the history of religious intolerance in US history.

Examine how recent trends in immigration have affected religious diversity in the US.

Terrorism and Its Challenges

Describe terrorism.

Describe the events of 9/11 and the US response to those events.

Explain how terrorism has affected the lives of Americans.

Human Rights: Contemporary Regions

Post-Colonial Governments in the Americas

Compare post-colonial governments, including communist, democratic, and dictatorial, in the Americas.

Explore the continued challenges faced by the post-colonial government of Colombia.

Post-Colonial Governments in Asia

Compare post-colonial governments, including communist, democratic, and dictatorial in Asia.

Explore India's journey from colony to parliamentary nation.

Post-Colonial Governments in Africa

Explore the political evolution from the Belgian Congo to the DRC and identify the social and economic implications the many changes have had on the current nation.

Identify the social and economic challenges that have been created or worsened by post-colonial governments in sub-Saharan Africa.

Case Study: Expanding Democracy

Describe the steps in the problem-solving process.

Explain how to draft a proposal.

Explore research methods to learn about a problem.

Identify challenges with democratic elections.

Human Rights: Contemporary Concerns

Politics, Policies, and Population

Analyze the Swedish government's motivation for promoting population growth.

Identify economic, social, and environmental factors contributing to government population policies.

Controlling Population: Eugenics and Genocide

Identify factors contributing to government involvement in population policies and changes.

Understand the theory of eugenics and the act of genocide as they relate to Nazi Germany before and during WWII and Rwanda in 1994.

Unit	Lesson	Lesson Objectives
Changing Geography: Changing Politics
Analyze the challenges caused by the creation of new countries. Explore the impact that wars, disputed territories, and religion in politics have on global relationships. Identify recent changes in political identities from unifications.
Modern Global Concerns
Analyze the reasons nuclear proliferation is a major global issue affecting relationships between countries. Examine the impact of globalization on world economies and the rise of regional economic blocs. Identify environmental challenges and possible solutions.
Environmental Issues: An Overview
Environmental Issues
Analyze ways the international community is working together to solve environmental problems. Explain how globalization can contribute to environmental problems. Identify common environmental problems caused by human activity.
Population and Migration
Analyze the world's basic population demographics. Describe the effects of migration on population. Examine how the balance of birth rates, death rates, and life expectancy affects population.
Impact of Science and Technology
Analyze the impact of mass communication and medical technology on the global world. Examine the increasing influence of renewable energy sources. Identify how the space race has changed since the Cold War.
Participating in a Class Discussion
Apply strategies for listening and responding to other speakers. Prepare for a group discussion.
Environmental Issues: Africa and the Middle East
Environmental Issues in Africa
Identify ways that human populations have interacted with the land in Africa. Identify ways that human populations have interacted with water in Africa. Summarize major environmental concerns in Africa today.
Environmental Issues in the Middle East
Describe ways that the oil industry has affected the environment of the Middle East. Identify ways that human populations have interacted with water in the Middle East. Summarize major environmental concerns in the growing cities of the Middle East.

Unit	Lesson	Lesson Objectives
------	--------	-------------------

Predicting the Future: Resources in the Middle East

Examine data and maps to analyze the relationship between population distribution and resources in the Middle East.

Identify problems associated with limited resources in the Middle East.

Make predictions about the social, economic, and environmental impacts of relying on the process of desalination for the water supply.

Environmental Issues: Asia

Environmental Issues in South and Southeast Asia

Describe ways that human populations have interacted with water in South Asia and Southeast Asia.

Examine the causes and effects of pollution in South Asia and Southeast Asia today.

Identify ways that human populations have interacted with the land in South Asia and Southeast Asia.

Environmental Issues in Central and East Asia

Identify ways that human populations have interacted with the land in Central and East Asia.

Identify ways that human populations have interacted with water in Central and East Asia.

Investigate the causes and effects of pollution in the nations of Central and East Asia today.

Writing Workshop: The Effects of Globalization

Create an outline in response to an informative essay prompt.

Revise and finalize an informative essay.

Write a draft of an informative essay about globalization in China.

Environmental Issues: Europe and the Americas

Environmental Issues in Europe

Examine the effects of air and water pollution in Europe.

Identify ways that humans have modified the land and water in Europe.

Investigate solutions to energy issues in Europe.

Environmental Issues in Latin America

Identify ways that human populations have modified the land in Latin America.

Identify ways that human populations have modified the water in Latin America.

Summarize the major environmental concerns of Latin America today.

Environmental Issues in the US and Canada

Examine the effects of logging and mining on the environment in Canada.

Identify ways that humans have modified the environment in the US and Canada.

Investigate the effects of air pollution and water pollution on the environment in the US.

Understand how growing cities have affected the environment in the US and Canada.

Americans and Their Environment

Describe ways Americans are working to solve environmental challenges.

Explain how the environment influences human behavior.

Identify ways that human activity has impacted the environment.

Unit	Lesson	Lesson Objectives
Globalization: Economics and Trade
The Contemporary Global Economy
Describe the effects of global trade on the American economy.
Explain how globalization has affected people around the world.
Explain how the economy of a country is measured.
International Trade
Describe the concept of international trade.
Explain the differences and connections between absolute and comparative advantage.
Identify reasons that countries specialize in the production of specific goods.
Economic Systems
Compare types of governments and the economic markets that thrive within them.
Describe major types of economic markets.
Explain the role that economic markets play in citizens' daily lives.
Economic Systems and Daily Life
Define ownership, property rights, income, wealth, and employment in the lives of citizens.
Explain the challenges that various markets face, including unemployment and the wealth gap.
Globalization: Social and Cultural Concerns
Development
Analyze challenges to social and economic development.
Analyze data that can be used to measure standard of living.
Identify the ways the Human Development Index can be used to rate development.
Poverty and Disease
Examine causes and effects of poverty.
Examine how the international community is working to combat poverty and disease.
Identify the causes and effects of endemic and epidemic diseases.
Cultural Challenges
Analyze the effects of the spread of Western culture on other cultures.
Describe the effect of modern technology on cultural diffusion.
Civic Action and Responsibility: Federal Systems and Policies
Comparing Types of Government
Compare different types of government.
Describe qualities of different types of governments.
Foundations of American Democracy
Analyze the influence of Enlightenment ideals on the foundations of American government.
Describe the political and social characteristics Alexis de Tocqueville found to be uniquely American.
Examine the important contributions of the nation's founders to American government and politics.

Unit	Lesson	Lesson Objectives
American Government
Describe the structure and function of each branch of the federal government.
Identify the separate powers of each branch of the federal government.
Fiscal Policy
Analyze the government's main sources of expenditure.
Describe the main sources of government funding on the federal, state, and local levels.
Identify the purpose of taxation and its relation to public policy.
Monetary Policy: The Federal Reserve
Describe the tools used by the Federal Reserve to influence the money supply.
Explain the role of the Federal Reserve in the economy.
Identify the goals of monetary policy.
Civic Action and Responsibility: State and Local Concerns
A Citizen's Rights and Responsibilities
Describe ways to demonstrate good citizenship.
Explain the legal responsibilities required of all citizens.
Identify fundamental rights protected by the US Bill of Rights and the Washington Declaration of Rights.
State Government in Washington
Describe the organization and role of the executive branch.
Describe the state's role in setting policies, taxing, and spending.
Explain how the legislative branch establishes state law.
Identify the structure and role of the judicial branch.
Local Government in Washington
Describe the purpose of local government.
Describe the roles and functions of county governments.
Explain the structures and functions of municipal governments.
Tribal Government
Describe the structure and function of tribal governments.
Explain how tribes are funded.
Explain how tribes interact with Washington state and federal governments.
Environmental Issues in Washington
Analyze the causes and effects of pollution.
Examine the causes and consequences of natural resource usage.		