Principal ACP - Alternative Certification Program Assistance

Austin Community College- Principal Alternative Certification Program

ACC offers the Principal ACP opportunity to aspiring administrators. The program is an approved principal education preparation program for individuals who hold a master's degree or higher.

The program is a two year certification program that offers in-person learning and instruction. Specifically, it consists of 6 classroom courses (first year) followed by a 1-year practicum. While in the practicum, all will be provided with continuous coaching from ACC field supervisors, as well as, site supervisor mentorship. With cohorts beginning in the fall, spring and summer, ACC has designed this program to accommodate individuals working full time.
