1. Public Schools of North Carolina Facility Survey and Recommendations Report for Orange County Schools, dated August 2012.

PURPOSE: To present information to the Board of Education regarding the Public Schools of North Carolina Facility Survey and Recommendations Report for Orange County Schools.

BACKGROUND: A team of consultants from the School Planning Section of the NC Department of Public Instruction (NCDPI) visited OCS from August 13 – 16, 2012 and toured the schools and support facilities with consideration of the following:

- Appropriateness of teaching spaces
- Physical condition of the facility
- Age and efficiency of the building systems

Members of the School Planning Section of NCDPI are present to discuss their findings and respond to questions from the Board.

The facilities study is enclosed in a separate notebook.

FINANCIAL IMPACT: None.

RECOMMENDATION: The Superintendent recommends the Board of Education discuss the Public Schools of North Carolina Facility Survey and Recommendations Report for Orange County Schools.
