School Board Consideration of Superintendent's Recommendation for Approval of the Proposed 2025-26, 2026-27 and 2027-28 School Year Calendars

Summary Explanation and Background

The Superintendent's Ad Hoc Calendar Committee, comprised of School District staff members and parents, recently met and overwhelmingly endorsed continuation of balanced school year calendars similar to the model which has been utilized for the past two decades by CCSD.

Developed within the Ad Hoc Committee process, the attached, proposed 2025-26, 2026-27 and 2027-28 School Year Calendars are recommended by the Superintendent of Schools for consideration by the School Board. Establishing three consecutive years of calendars in a timely manner will enhance district and school strategic planning, as well as assist parents, communities and local service agencies in planning/scheduling activities.

Considerations used by the Ad Hoc Committee in the development of these annual school year calendars were as follows:

- Beginning the school year during the first week of August
- Utilizing break weeks strategically located during the school year
- Ending the school year prior to Memorial Day
- Ending teacher contracts by the end of May
