

Margaret J. Thornton Elementary School

Board approved redistricting plan

The Board of Education of Charles County at its June 11 meeting approved an elementary school redistricting plan that will create an attendance zone for Margaret Jamieson Thornton Elementary School, set to open in August 2025.

The Board approved one of two redistricting recommendations provided by the Charles County Public Schools (CCPS) Elementary School Redistricting Committee – Proposal B. The Board did not approve the recommendation made by Superintendent of Schools Maria V. Navarro, Ed.D., for a modified Proposal B that would have moved only 531 existing students.

The following is a summary of neighborhood blocks that will make up the zone for Thornton.

Blocks 3871, 3881, 3859 and 3891 from Billingsley Elementary School

Blocks 2571, 2711 and 2643 from Arthur Middleton Elementary School

Blocks 2531, 2541, 2561 and 2551 from Mary H. Matula Elementary School

THE FOLLOWING BLOCKS WILL MOVE:

Block 3781 moves from Berry to William A. Diggs Elementary School

Block 3750 moves from Diggs to Billingsley

Block 1821 from Walter J. Mitchell Elementary School moves to T.C. Martin Elementary School

Blocks 2732 and 3862 move from Billingsley to Middleton

Block 3830 moves from Billingsley to William B. Wade Elementary School

Block 2951 moves from J.P. Ryon to Arthur Middleton Elementary School

NUMBER OF STUDENTS SET TO MOVE:

Moves 1,044 existing CCPS students.

How to find your neighborhood block:

To find the neighborhood block number for your home address, look under the Student Information/Student Info area of ParentVue. The information is labeled in ParentVue as Grid Code and the first four numbers is the block number.

For more information or to view the redistricting plans visit, <https://www.ccboe.com/parents/redistricting-elementary-school>.