McKinney-Vento
STUDENTS IN TRANSITION

The Carson City School district can help. If qualified under the McKinney-Vento Act, your students will receive access to the same, free, appropriate, public education as their peers, removing barriers so they have an opportunity to meet challenging state academic standards.

Carson City School District

Educational Rights of Children & Youth under the McKinney-Vento Homeless Education Act

- Receive a free, appropriate public education
- Enroll in school immediately, even if lacking documents
- Continue to attend the school of origin even if your situation changes
- Receive transportation to and from school
- Attend school and participate in school programs with students who are not in the same situation
- Receive free school meals
- Receive support with school supplies, school fees, sports fees, graduation assistance, as well as removing other barriers that may impact access to education

How parents experiencing homelessness can help:

> Make sure your student attends school everyday

> Make education a family priority

> Reach out to your student's school to be in contact with social worker, counselor, and district coordinator

> Stay involved with your student's education and academic progression

> If your situation changes, please notify the school immediately so that they can assist you.

Your student(s) may be eligible for certain educational rights and services under the McKinney-Vento Act.
