9. REPORT OF COMMITTEES

Procedural: A. High School

Mr. Corona: At the central high school district, we celebrated our 21 retirees. Kennedy's softball team and girls' wrestling team were named County Champions. The girls' track team from Calhoun was also named County Champions. All graduation took place on Sunday, and our president, Ms. Ryan, spoke at the Calhoun graduation.

Mr. Corona listed all of our valedictorians and salutatorians:

Calhoun High School, Fiona Wong, valedictorian, and Joseph Barcourt, salutatorian.
Kennedy High School; Gabriella Tejada, valedictorian and Cole Wasserman salutatorian.
MAP Olivia Weissman, valedictorian and Sarah Kruska, salutatorian.
Mephams High School: Christina Foulas, valedictorian and Matt Young, salutatorian.

Procedural: B. School Community Relations/PTA Council

Ms. Keene thanked the PTA for all their hard work. Ms. Keene went over the many events throughout the district, such as the upcoming installation dinners, kindergarten orientation/Ready-Set-Go, teacher/staff appreciation, and school field trips. Fun Days are scheduled throughout the district. The PTAs are working on planning committees for our kindergarten and 6th-grade graduations, and the first successful bake sale and plant sale was held on the steps of Fayette during our community open house. It was incredible this year, and I know it'll be awesome next year too.

Procedural: C. Buildings & Grounds

Congratulations to the new employees of the district, and wish them a happy retirement to the retirees.
He announced that the district issued a purchase order for the Camp Avenue playground and is in the process of issuing a purchase order for the HDF gymnasium air conditioning. He thanked the building and ground staff for a fantastic job with the events' setup and breakdown. The district has many in-house projects which will be done during the summer.
