GRADUATION CELEBRATION

Members of the Seneca Valley Class of 2020 entered their senior year never imagining the abrupt end that would follow. Despite this unimagined altered course, all of us at Seneca Valley are proud of the incredible strength and resiliency shown by this group of outstanding young men and women. Graduation celebrations were held May 28-29 at NexTier Stadium and featured a stage walk on the field, individual recognition, a campus filled with teacher signs and culminated with a virtual ceremony complete with a tassel turn and speeches from several students and members of the administration.

"The congratulatory remarks from your friends and family during this time, and the encouragement given by the Seneca Valley staff over the past few months have never been more poignant or powerful; never more needed and never more true," said Dr. Tracy Vitale, Superintendent of Schools, during her commencement remarks. "The challenges you face are great, but so, too, are the opportunities that now stand before you."

These students – as individuals and as a group – are special and unique. We encourage all graduates to move forward as tomorrow's leaders with great purpose, solid convictions and high standards. We encourage the SV Class of 2020 to embrace these qualities and let them serve as a guide now and into the future.

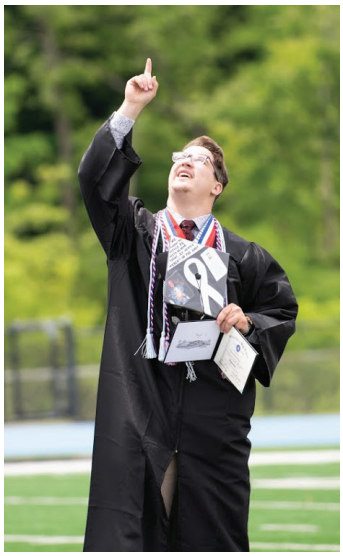

Congratulations to Seneca Valley's Class of 2020! ■

OF SPECIAL NOTE

Speakers:

Nishant Jayachandran, Valedictorian
Nishant Jayachandran is the son of Jayachandran Kalladathu and Ante Jayachandran of Cranberry Township. He has served as Student Council President, competed at the national level in Academic Decathlon and JOAD archery, and led the Youth and Government Delegation of Rose E. Schneider YMCA. He will be attending Brown University, Providence, and is excited to be studying Economics and Anthropology while following the Pre-Med track and "chasing mad clout".

Katie Maloney, Salutatorian
Katie Maloney is the daughter of Joe and Lori Maloney of Cranberry Township. She was a senator of the 2020 Class Officers and was a member in both National Science Honors Society and National Honors Society. She plans to attend Penn State, University Park, with a major in Chemical Engineering.

Owen Blazer, Speaker at Large
Owen Blazer is the son of Eric and Tammy Blazer of Cranberry Township. He holds a WPIAL record for swimming and has been an active volunteer in the Learn to Swim program with the Seneca Valley Swim Club. He plans to attend Miami University where he will study Accounting and swim.

SPECIAL DELIVERY

Picking up graduation regalia is just one of many milestones that typically occur for seniors at the end of the school year.

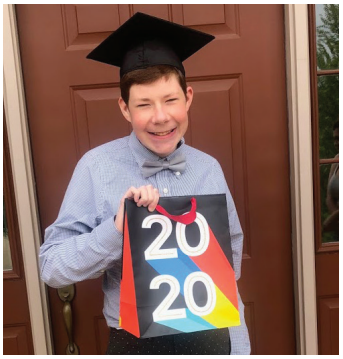

Even during this difficult time, we still wanted to commemorate this tradition, so we asked all K-12 Seneca Valley teachers to join in on the fun.

Last month, they hand delivered over 570 caps and gowns to senior homes.

Teachers enjoyed this time seeing their former students in person and wishing them well. In addition to delivering regalia, many of them also brought gifts, balloons and treats to celebrate the soon-to-be graduates!

SV GRADUATE NAMED NATIONAL MERIT SCHOLARSHIP WINNER

The National Merit Scholarship Corporation (NMSC) announced over 3,300 winners of National Merit Scholarships financed by U.S. colleges and universities, including Seneca Valley's own Sean Scott. Mr. Scott, a recent 2020 graduate, has been offered a National Merit University of Miami Ohio Scholarship.

Officials of each sponsor college selected their scholarship winners from among the Finalists in the 2020 National Merit Scholarship Program who plan to attend their institution. These awards provide between $500 and $2,000 annually for up to four years of undergraduate study at the institution financing the scholarship. An additional group of Scholars will be announced in July, bringing the total number of college-sponsored Merit Scholarship recipients in the 2020 competition to about 4,100.

Recent Seneca Valley Graduates Nishant Jayachandran and Olivia Schultheis were also named Finalists in the 65th annual NMS Program.

This year, 167 higher education institutions are underwriting Merit Scholarship awards through the National Merit Scholarship Program. Sponsor colleges and universities include 92 private and 75 public institutions located in 43 states and the District of Columbia.

College-sponsored Merit Scholarship winners are a part of the distinguished group of about 7,600 high school seniors who will receive National Merit Scholarships for college undergraduate study worth over $30 million. Earlier this spring, NMSC announced winners of corporate-sponsored Merit Scholarship awards and National Merit $2500 Scholarships. ■

ASPIRATIONAL STUDENTS

Seneca Valley 2020 Graduates Claira Matthews and Madison Geis were recently recognized by the National Center for Women and Information Technology (NCWIT).

Miss Matthews and Miss Geis were selected as 2020 National Certificate of Distinction recipients of the NCWIT Award for Aspirations in Computing.

They were recognized for their computing-related aspirations and for their demonstrated, outstanding aptitude and interest in information technology and computing; solid leadership ability; good academic history; and their plans for post-secondary education.

"I'm so glad these young women are able to be represented in a field that they have great passion for and recognized for all of their hard work, dedication and passion for computer science," stated Seneca Valley Senior High School Computer Programming Teacher Diane Koegler.

The Western and Central PA affiliate of the NCWIT Award for Aspirations in Computing is a collaborative effort by dedicated volunteers from Saint Francis University; Penn State University, New Kensington; University of Pittsburgh; Carnegie Mellon University, and All Clear Translations. ■

SENIOR AWARDS NIGHT TRIBUTE

We are proud of the many accomplishments from the Class of 2020. Several Seneca Valley students were recently awarded local scholarships and award recognitions. Typically, this is celebrated at the senior high school's annual Award Recognition Night that was to be held on May 18. Click here to enjoy this video as a tribute to that event and that honors this special group of seniors. ■

FINANCIAL GAINS

What is the benefit of a budget? Students in personal finance classes at the senior high school recently found out.

The future financial planners in Kathy Mahony, Tim Landry, Shelly Keffalas, and Carol-lynn Dubovi's classes participated in The Budget Challenge, an online simulation that replicates real-world budgeting and personal finance decision-making.

By simulating an adult's financial life – paying bills, investing in retirement, managing loans and more – students "learn-by-doing" and are able to make real-world mistakes without facing real-world consequences.

The following students placed first and second overall in each of the classes. First place winners were Ashley Stimmel, Robbie Halyama, Michael Waitlevertch, Ethan Morrison and Joshua Neal. Second place winners were Ben Heinlein, Ryan Donnelly, Anna Vitale, Trevor Weigand and Christian DeBiase.

"We are especially proud of these students, because they persisted and were able to complete the last few weeks of the simulation at home," said Ms. Mahony. "Although they had guidance, it wasn't easy to do without a teacher in the room to answer questions." ■

CELEBRATING OUR SENIORS

We knew our students were feeling emotional knowing that our schools were closed for the remainder of the school year. This was especially true for our seniors as they were looking forward to closing out their K-12 years in our classrooms and hallways. As a way to recognize them, and lift their spirits, we partnered with the Seneca Valley Foundation (SVF) to provide yard signs that proclaimed SV's Class of 2020 as the "Proud and Strong" students we know them to be. In April, Seneca Valley teachers, administrators, staff, coaches, school board members and SVF Board of Trustees hand delivered over 570 yard signs to our seniors that brought much-needed smiles to their faces and those who delivered them! Enjoy this video celebrating our seniors.

'YOU RAISE ME UP'

Over 500 chorus students in grades 7-12 participated in a project this spring to create a groundbreaking virtual choir. It was created to provide the students with a spring chorus performance for their own families to enjoy.

The song "You Raise Me Up" was chosen as an acknowledgment to the graduating seniors.

"It's a long-standing tradition to end the spring senior high chorus concert with that song," said Claire Barker, choir director at Ryan Gloyer Middle School (RGMS). "It's a rite of passage all seniors look forward to, and we felt it was important that these seniors got that same moment."

All three choir directors—Aaron Magill of the senior high school, Bobi-Jean Alexander of the intermediate high school, and Ms. Barker of RGMS—came together for this project, collecting recordings from students and collaborating on the final project. From there, the video was created by Ms. Barker's husband, Alex.

The project took over 100 hours to complete.

Senior Micah Link said, "Being part of this project means I get to sing with my favorite people one last time and make my voice heard."

"Watching the project was pretty emotional for me," stated Junior Bryce White. "I know it wasn't in person, but seeing all of the seniors that I've come to know perform one last time still made me very sad. I miss them so much already, and seeing that really just cemented in my mind that I probably won't see most of them ever again."

"We always say that our choir program is a family more than anything else," said Ms. Barker. "I think this project speaks to that more than anything."

Watch their moving performance here.

STRONG SENIORS

After many heartfelt conversations with SV seniors, Seneca Valley Intermediate High School Choir Teacher Bobi-Jean Alexander felt the need to do something special for them.

"My heart goes out to all of the seniors," Ms. Alexander said. "I took the expressions from those conversations and put them into a song. I'm not sure people always realize how profoundly SV faculty and staff are affected by our students and their families. We experience their successes and losses along with them."

Click here to listen to the song "Strong" which was a gift from Ms. Alexander's family to graduating seniors, and the whole SV family.

AT-HOME EDITION

The Seneca Valley Band Directors recently hosted a live-streamed event to honor band seniors and celebrate another great year of accomplishments in the SV Band program.

During this program, directors announced senior names, presented awards and shared many of the special moments that would occur at the traditional year-end banquet.

In addition, the band directing staff personally delivered senior gifts on May 22.

RAIDER STUDENT-ATHLETES COLLECT HONORS

In a time when phrases such as global pandemic, social distancing and COVID-19 occupy our conversations and daily routines, none of these could put a halt to well-deserved honors bestowed on our student-athletes as the 2019-20 school year ends. We celebrate the following student-athletes for their accomplishments and wish them all the best as they embark on a new journey this fall as college freshmen. Thank you for representing our District with immense pride and class.

WPIAL Scholar-Athlete – Drew Vlasnik

Senior wrestler and team captain Drew Vlasnik was honored by the WPIAL with one of its highest honors as he was one of 10 male student-athletes across the WPIAL to take home a prestigious WPIAL James Collins' Scholar-Athlete Award scholarship. Drew will graduate from Seneca Valley with highest honors and over 100 career wins as a Raider wrestler. He will study Computer Science at the University of Chicago and continue his wrestling career.

NADA Celebrates Three-Sport Athletes

The Northern Area Athletic Directors Association (NADA) recently recognized those student-athletes who competed in three sports their senior year. Seneca Valley honorees included Morgan Sinan (soccer, basketball and track & field) and Gabe Lawson (football, basketball and baseball.)

Morgan Sinan is a two-time All-Big 56 Conference 1st team, All-WPIAL, and All-Section honoree at goalkeeper. She also holds a Girls' Soccer WPIAL AAAA championship gold medal in her possession. This Gannon University recruit was a force in goal for girls' soccer over the past two seasons. As a senior, Morgan put her athleticism on display, serving as a key back-up on our girls' basketball squad and, were it not for the cancellation of spring seasons, would have been a valuable member of our Raider Track & Field program. This truly gifted student-athlete will study Cyber Engineering and compete on the women's soccer team at Gannon University.

Classmate Gabe Lawson's senior year started off with Big-56 All-Conference, second team honors as defensive back. He followed that up with a starting role on our boys' basketball team and earned his fourth letter in the sport. And, while COVID-19 stole his senior year in baseball, nothing can diminish Gabe's accomplishments as a multi-sport athlete who earned 11 varsity letters in his scholastic career. Gabe will study business while continuing his football career at Valparaiso University.

Seneca Valley Announces Annual Athletic Award Winners

The following are the recipients of our Seneca Valley Athletics Department Annual Awards.

NexTier Award Male MVP

This award is given to a male athlete with the following characteristics: athletic ability 50%, character 30%, and scholarship 20%.

2020 Recipient: Owen Blazer, Swimming & Diving

Sherman Award Female MVP

This award is presented by the Sherman Family. It goes to a female athlete with the following characteristics: athletic ability 50%, character 30%, and scholarship 20%.

2020 Recipient: Breana Valentovish, Girls' Soccer
