NEW HARTFORD — Senior guard Ricky Phelps scored 25 points and the Oriskany boys basketball team captured the Small School portion of New Hartford High School's inaugural "All in for Vin" Memorial Classic with Saturday's 68-61 victory over Canastota.

Phelps also had six rebounds and five assists and was named the Most Valuable Player of the tournament. He had 15 points, 10 rebounds, six assists and four steals in Oriskany's 65-36 first-round win over Frankfort-Schuyler.

Oriskany senior Donovan Williams scored 17 points in each game. Junior Aaron Warcup added 11 points in Saturday's final and was named to the all-tournament team — he scored 17 in the win over Frankfort-Schuyler — and Brandon Reid grabbed 10 rebounds.

Oriskany led 40-17 at halftime. Canastota's Mike Bigos scored 15 of his 23 points in the fourth quarter, when the Raiders outscored Oriskany 27-13.

Edquen Brooks added 17 points for Canastota.

- In the consolation game of New Hartford's Large School tournament, Todd Manolescu scored 21 points, Thomas R. Proctor led 47-22 at the half, and the Raiders beat New Hartford 81-58.

Cameron Johnson scored 13 points for Proctor and the Raiders' Landon Johnson made the all-tournament team. Proctor (1-1) plays Fayetteville-Manlius Tuesday night in its home opener.

Joe Murray scored 25 points and Austin Dropkin had 18 for New Hartford (0-2).

Whitesboro hockey takes third place in tournament

Andrew Maycock scored twice to lead Whitesboro's Warriors to a 4-1 victory over host Rome Free Academy in the consolation game of RFA's fifth annual Bobby Ciccotti Memorial Tournament at the Kennedy Arena.

Jimmy Kraeger and Brandon Webb also scored, David LaMore had two assists, and Jake Domagal made seven saves for the Warriors.

New Hartford, a 3-1 winner over Whitesboro in Friday's first round, played Mohawk Valley in Saturday night's championship game.
