

Katie Bowers, goalie for Oriskany High School is taking her talents to SUNY Polytechnic Institute to play on the Division III level.

The captain was awarded MVP and granted two all-star selections her junior and senior year. She also had over 200 saves this season for the Redskins.

Bowers will be in the nursing program at SUNY Poly which is associated with St. Elizabeth's College of Nursing.

Sofia Tagliaferri from Oriskany High School's softball season was cut short.

She played basketball, soccer and ran cross country for the redskins.

She says her favorite memory from softball is playing in the sectional playoffs and enjoys playing on the Utica Lady Comets Club softball team.

Next year she will be attending the University of North Carolina at Charlotte to major in engineering.
