Catechists: Sharing the Faith

This fall at OLGC, more than 300
children and young people will sign up to learn more about Jesus and the Catholic faith. You can help them learn and grow in faith by becoming a catechist for Faith Formation.

We are looking for adults and high schoolers with a desire to teach,
and we provide you with training,
materials, and support throughout
the year.

We have our Catechist meeting and walkthrough on Tuesday, August 20th with classes beginning
September 7th.

This year, we are waiving the registration and sacramental fees for Catechists who are teaching CCF and have
students in the program.

Thank you in advance for your consideration, time, and commitment to the growth of Christ's church; this mission is dependent on our Catechists. If you know anyone who would be interested in being a catechist,

please let us know!

*"Therefore go and make disciples of all nations,
baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age."*

You Can Make a Difference!

Do you want to help our youngest parishioners (3-7 years old) learn more about our Catholic faith?
CLW needs you! No experience needed. You can teach, help the CLW teachers with crowd control
or read the Gospel. Adults, Confirmandi needing hours, teens,
and tweens are welcome. Our CLW
year begins on Sunday, August 25th during the 10 am Mass.

SUMMER SPLASH BINGO

The Shepherd's Center of Northern Virginia invites you to Bingo at Foster's Grille, 138A Maple Avenue in Vienna, on July 22 from 4-6 pm. 10 games will cost only $10, and there'll be great prizes and plenty of time to socialize with friends while you play. 20% of refreshment proceeds benefit SCNOVA.

A NEW TWIST

Juan Vasquez, the Vienna Police Department Public Information Officer, has announced how criminals now use Bitcoin to steal your money. This common new scam involves converting large amounts of cash into a type of digital currency (cryptocurrency) like Bitcoin. Criminals will convince their victims to withdraw or transfer cash into digital currency wallets through Bitcoin ATMs or digital apps, and they use a multitude of stories to convince their victims:

- You have a warrant for your arrest unless you pay us!
- Your family member is in trouble and can't pay their lawyer unless you send money now!
- Invest in Bitcoin—I can be your financial advisor and handle the details for you!
- Oops! We deposited too much money into your account, but it's okay, you can send it back to us!

Well, IT'S ALL A SCAM! But what's behind it? Why digital currency? What's digital currency anyway? If these questions cross your mind, then this article is for you. Overly simplified, cryptocurrency is a decentralized (not regulated by a government or entity) currency system whose value is similar to the stock market. Instead of a product or service backing the stock value, it's the user's belief in a currency that isn't monitored by a government. While still a risky venture, blockchain technology is what gives it stability. The blockchain, a public ledger that forever tracks cryptocurrencies' existence and movement, exists in multiple locations simultaneously so that it cannot be successfully counterfeited. Users can exchange cryptocurrency for goods and services with other people or businesses who also believe in its value. Because of the fraud and nefarious criminal uses associated with cryptocurrency, it has a poor reputation with many people.

The bottom line is that cryptocurrency comes with a lot of risk. Unless you are seeking it out and have sufficiently educated yourself about it, there is no legitimate reason anyone should be asking you for it. (Thanks to Juan Vazquez)

AND THERE'S MORE

Fairfax County Police want you to be on the lookout for a scam in your personal property tax bill. This month, personal property tax bills are mailed to Fairfax County residents. To help educate them about scams, a two-sided flyer with information about scams will be included with your bill. One side of the flyer has tips on how to protect yourself against them. The other side includes information about services offered by the county's Adult and Aging Division. If you've been a victim of a scam and lost money, contact the Fairfax County Police Department's non-emergency number: 703.691.2131. If you have questions about your tax bill, call 703.222.8234.

CORRECTION: The date for The Ashcats' concert on the Vienna Town Green is July 26.

Campus Improvements

A lot of the work being done this summer to improve our campus is going on indoors. We have heard from you that you have noticed outdoor spaces in need of care.

Please know that we are working to upgrade the trash cans and benches on campus. Things look a little rough right now because we are taking the time to find the best products that will not only look great but also hold up for years to come.

We hope that a break in the weather will allow more outdoor work to begin soon.

REFLEXION SALESIANA

*Décimo Sexto Domingo del
Tiempo Ordinario 21 de julio*

Las lecturas de hoy nos recuerdan que nuestro Dios es un Dios compasivo. San Francisco de Sales frecuentemente hace énfasis en el cuidado amoroso de Dios, especialmente en la adversidad:

Nuestro Dios es el Dios del corazón humano. Cuando nuestro corazón está en peligro, solamente Él puede salvarlo y protegerlo. Así como Dios es el creador de todo cuanto nos rodea, Él mismo se encarga de protegerlo todo. Él sustenta y abarca toda la creación. En consecuencia, Su deseo es que todas las cosas sean buenas y hermosas. Es por esto por lo que debemos tener la certeza que Dios vela por nuestros intereses, incluso en la adversidad. Las razones por las cuales debemos enfrentar ciertas pruebas no siempre nos resultan claras; debemos admitir, sin embargo, que algunas veces nosotros mismos somos la causa de nuestros problemas.

Aun cuando es importante que seamos cuidadosos y que estemos atentos a todas aquellas cosas que Dios ha encomendado a nuestro cuidado, no debemos dejarnos llevar por la ansiedad, la incomodidad, ni tampoco debemos precipitarnos. La preocupación nubla la razón y el buen juicio, y nos impide hacer bien precisamente esas cosas que tanto nos inquietan. Las lluvias hacen que los campos abiertos den frutos, pero las inundaciones arruinan los campos y las praderas.

Así pues, asuman todos sus asuntos con la mente en calma y de manera ordenada, cada uno a su tiempo. Si intentan lograr todo al mismo tiempo, o de manera desordenada, su espíritu se sobrecargará y se deprimirá tanto que seguramente quedarán hundidos bajo el peso de la carga, y no lograrán llevar nada a buen término. En todos sus asuntos, deben luchar en paz y cumplir con el plan que Dios ha trazado para ustedes.

Dios nos provee una gran abundancia de medios apropiados para que podamos alcanzar la salvación. Por medio de una inyección maravillosa de la gracia de Dios en nuestros corazones, el Espíritu hace que nuestras obras se conviertan en obras de Dios. Nuestros buenos trabajos, como un pequeño grano de mostaza, tienen vigor y virtud para hacer un gran bien, ya que proceden del Espíritu de Jesús. Ustedes pueden estar seguros de que, si confían firmemente en el amor compasivo de Dios, y en Su preocupación por nosotros, el éxito que tendrán de sus trabajos siempre será útil tanto para ustedes como para la comunidad creyente.
