Great news - St. Agnes is excited to invite our parishioners to access the Hallow prayer app this Lent. Sign up today to access Hallow's premium app content beginning now through Easter Sunday for FREE! Through prayer and meditation rooted in the Catholic faith, Hallow helps people grow closer to God and find peace. Follow the steps below to access your free content.

Hallow

Step-by-Step Registration Process

How to Access Hallow Plus through Easter:

Step 1: Follow this link to find your parish page:

<http://hallow.com/holiday>

Step 2: Search for your parish by name or location in the search box. Click Continue.

St. Agnes Catholic Church Key Biscayne

Step 3: If you have an existing account please log into it. If you don't have an account you can create one by choosing any of your three options here. (Note: if you have an account with an email already and you login with the wrong password you will get the error that this account already exists, simply reset your password and try again)

Step 4: After you hit register you will come to this screen and now all you need to do is download the hallow app and login the same way you just did.

Step 5: Confirm in your Account Settings that you have a free subscription through Easter!

The annual, monthly, and family subscription options are not relevant during the sign up process as the parish has made Hallow Plus available for free through the start of Easter!

LENT 2024

Reflect. Repent. Restore.

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
			February 14 Ash Wednesday—Lent Begins Behold, now is a very acceptable time; behold, now is the day of salvation. (2 Cor 6:2)	February 15 “During Lent we are invited to ascend ‘a high mountain’ in the company of Jesus and to live a particular experience of spiritual discipline – asceticism – as God’s holy people.” (Pope Francis, Message for Lent 2023)	February 16 Explore some new meatless recipes and commit to living more simply, accompanying our brothers and sisters who lack material resources.	February 17 Many who will be baptized at the Easter Vigil will celebrate the Rite of Election tomorrow. Say a prayer for the elect, for those who will be received into the full communion of the Catholic Church, and for all who seek God with a sincere heart.
			February 18 First Sunday of Lent “This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel.” (Mark 1:15)	February 19 “Lenten penance is a commitment, sustained by grace, to overcoming our lack of faith and our resistance to following Jesus on the way of the cross.” (Pope Francis, Message for Lent 2023)	February 20 Examine your conscience before going to bed tonight and make plans to receive the Sacrament of Penance during Lent.	February 21 “In the Sacrifice of the Mass the Passion of Christ is made present, and the body handed over for us and the blood poured out for the forgiveness of sins are again offered to God by the Church for the salvation of the whole world.” (Order of Penance, no. 2)

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
February 25 Second Sunday of Lent “This is my beloved Son. Listen to him.” (Mark 9:7)	February 26 “We need to listen to Jesus. Lent is a time of grace to the extent that we listen to him as he speaks to us.” (Pope Francis, Message for Lent 2023)	February 27 After dinner, pray a decade of the Rosary for those who feel unwelcomed, unheard, and unloved.	February 28 “Often when people commit deeds of injustice, they act together. In the same way, when they repent they help one another, so that, freed from sin by the grace of Christ, they may work together with all people of good will for justice and peace in the world.” (Order of Penance, no. 5)	February 29 On this “extra” day of the year, make a list of all the good things that God has given you and say a prayer of thanksgiving for God’s loving care.	March 1 Prayerfully discern ways that you can give to others by sharing your time, treasure, and talent.	March 2 If possible, apologize to someone you have hurt or offer forgiveness to someone who has hurt you.
March 3 Third Sunday of Lent We proclaim Christ crucified. (1 Cor 1:23)	March 4 “To deepen our knowledge of the Master, to fully understand and embrace the mystery of his salvation, accomplished in total self-giving inspired by love, we must allow ourselves to be taken aside by him and to detach ourselves from mediocrity and vanity. We need to set out on the journey, an uphill path that, like a mountain trek, requires effort, sacrifice and concentration.” (Pope Francis, Message for Lent 2023)	March 5 Pray one of the Penitential Psalms (Psalms 6, 32, 38, 51, 102, 130, 143) and give thanks for God’s mercy.	March 6 “The disciple of Christ who, after sinning, is moved by the Holy Spirit and comes to the Sacrament of Penance, should, above all, turn to God with all his (her) heart.” (Order of Penance, no. 6)	March 7 Today is the memorial of Saints Perpetua and Felicity, martyred in Africa in the early years of the third century. Pray for all who suffer persecution for their faith.	March 8 As Lent nears its halfway point, recommit yourself to prayer, fasting, and almsgiving to purify your heart for the Paschal feast.	March 9 Lord Jesus, have mercy on me, a sinner.
March 10 Fourth Sunday of Lent For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. (John 3:16)	March 11 “Jesus is himself the Way, and therefore, both in the liturgical journey and in the journey of the Synod, the Church does nothing other than enter ever more deeply and fully into the mystery of Christ the Savior.” (Pope Francis, Message for Lent 2023)	March 12 If possible, spend some time in prayer before the Blessed Sacrament, asking that God will fill you with his grace so that you may draw ever closer to the Body of Christ.	March 13 “The genuineness of repentance depends on this contrition of heart. For conversion should affect the person from within, in order to enlighten him (her) more deeply day by day and to conform him (her) more and more to Christ.” (Order of Penance, no. 6a)	March 14 Pray for peace in all the troubled parts of our world, in our communities, and in our families.	March 15 Pray the Stations of the Cross ( Stations Of The Cross   USCCB ), either in your parish or on your own.	March 16 Blessed are you, Lord, God of all creation: you make us hunger and thirst for holiness. Blessed are you, Lord, God of all creation: you call us to true fasting: to set free the oppressed, to share our bread with the hungry, to shelter the homeless and to clothe the naked. (Catholic Household Blessings and Prayers)

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
March 17 Fifth Sunday of Lent Whoever loves his life loses it, and whoever hates his life in this world will preserve it for eternal life. (John 12:25)	March 18 “It is in togetherness that we follow Jesus. Together too, as a pilgrim Church in time, we experience the liturgical year and Lent within it, walking alongside those whom the Lord has placed among us as fellow travelers.” (Pope Francis, Message for Lent 2023)	Solemnity of Saint Joseph As we celebrate Saint Joseph, pray for all fathers, that God may grant eternal rest to those who have died and strengthen the living with love for their families and commitment to their vocation.	March 20 “The Sacrament of Penance involves the confession of sins, which proceeds from true knowledge of self before God and from contrition for sins. This inward examination of the heart and outward accusation, however, should be made in the light of God’s mercy.” (Order of Penance, no. 6b)	March 21 Pray for a deeper respect for all human life, especially for the most vulnerable: the unborn, the infirm, those with disabilities, those on death row, and the terminally ill.	March 22 On this final Friday of Lent, let your sacrifices unite you with your suffering brothers and sisters and with Jesus’ perfect sacrifice on the Cross.	March 23 If possible, make plans to participate next week in your parish’s celebration of the moving liturgies of the Triduum (Holy Thursday through Easter Sunday).
March 24 Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord “Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is to come! Hosanna in the highest!” (Mark 11:9-10)	March 25 “Lent leads to Easter: the ‘retreat’ is not an end in itself, but a means of preparing us to experience the Lord’s passion and cross with faith, hope and love, and thus to arrive at the resurrection.” (Pope Francis, Message for Lent 2023)	March 26 As Lent draws to a close, reflect on your Lenten journey. How have you grown closer to God? How have you grown in holiness? Give thanks to God for accompanying you in this season.	March 27 O Lord, our God and Father, who have given us life through the Passion of your Son, grant that, joined through penance to his Death, we may also be sharers, with all people, in his Resurrection. (Order of Penance, Appendix II, no. 15)	March 28 Holy Thursday On the night before he died, Jesus instituted the Sacrament of the Eucharist at his Last Supper with his friends. Pray for the grace to be ever aware of Jesus’ Real Presence in the Eucharist.	March 29 Good Friday We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you, because by your Holy Cross you have redeemed the world.	March 30 Holy Saturday If possible, spend today in quiet prayer, praying for those who receive Sacraments of Initiation tonight and that you will have renewed strength to live your baptismal call.
March 31 Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord You seek Jesus of Nazareth, the crucified. He has been raised; he is not here. (Mark 16:6)	“Dear brothers and sisters, may the Holy Spirit inspire and sustain us this Lent in our ascent with Jesus, so that we may experience his divine splendour and thus, confirmed in faith, persevere in our journey together with him, glory of his people and light of the nations.” —Pope Francis, Message for Lent, 2023

The Stations of The Cross

Lent is a 40 day period of preparation to celebrate the Lord's Resurrection at Easter. During Lent, from Ash Wednesday to Good Thursday, we seek the Lord in prayer by reading Sacred Scripture; we serve by giving alms; and we practice self-control through fasting. We are called not only to abstain from luxuries during Lent, but to a true inner conversion of heart as we seek to follow Christ's will more faithfully. We recall the waters of baptism in which we were also baptized into Christ's death, died to sin and evil, and began new life in Christ.

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are obligatory days of fasting and abstinence.

In addition, Fridays during Lent are obligatory days of abstinence.

Join us in praying the Way of the Cross on Fridays during lent at 7:30AM in English or 5:15PM in Spanish in the church or on your own outside the church.

The Way of the Cross is prayed standing, and at times kneeling. It should be done walking, stopping at each station, to remember Jesus' path to Calvary. + In the name of the Father + the Son + and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Lord, May the meditation of your Passion and Death encourage us and help us to take up the cross of each day and follow you, to one day rise with you in glory. Amen. After each station say: We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you. (genuflect) Because by your holy cross You have redeemed the world. (Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory)

The First Station: Jesus Is Condemned To Death Scripture: Mark 15:1-5, 15

And as soon as it was morning the chief priests, with the elders and scribes, and the whole council held a consultation; and they bound Jesus and led him away and delivered him to Pilate. And Pilate asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" And he answered him, "You have said so." And the chief priests accused him of many things. And Pilate again asked him, "Have you no answer to make? See how many charges they bring against you." But Jesus made no further answer, so that Pilate wondered. So Pilate, wishing to satisfy the crowd, released for them Barab'bas; and having scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.

The Second Station: Jesus Carries The Cross Scripture: John 19:6, 15-17

When the chief priests and the officers saw him, they cried out, "Crucify him, crucify him!" Pilate said to them, "Take him yourselves and crucify him, for I find no crime in him." They cried out, "Away with him, away with him, crucify him!" Pilate said to them, "Shall I crucify you King?" The chief priests answered, "We have no king but Caesar." Then he handed him over to them to be crucified. So they took Jesus, and he went out, bearing his own cross, to the place called the place of a skull, which is called in Hebrew Gol'gotha.

The Third Station: Jesus Falls For The First Time Scripture: John 19:1-3

Then Pilate took Jesus and had him scourged. And the soldiers wove a crown out of thorns and placed it on his head, and clothed him in a purple cloak, and they came to him and said, "Hail, King of the Jews!" And they struck him repeatedly.

The Fourth Station : Jesus Meets His Mother Scripture: John 19: 25-27

So the soldiers did this. But standing by the cross of Jesus were his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Mag'dalene. When Jesus saw his mother, and the disciple whom he loved standing near, he said to his mother, "Woman, behold, you son!" Then he said to the disciple, "Behold, your mother!" And from that hour the disciple took her to his own home.

The Fifth Station: Simon Helps Jesus Carry His Cross Scripture: Mark 15:21

And they compelled a passer-by, Simon of Cyre'ne, who was coming in from the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to carry his cross.

The Sixth Station: Veronica Wipes The Face Of Jesus Scripture: Isaiah 53:2-3

He had no form or comeliness that we should look at him, and no beauty that we should desire him. He was despised and rejected by men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief and as one from whom men hide their faces he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

The Seventh Station: Jesus Falls A Second Time Scripture: Romans 8:31-39

If God is for us, who can be against us? God who did not spare his own Son but handed him over for us all, how will he not also give us everything else along with him? What will separate us from the love of Christ? Will anguish, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or the sword? No, in all these things we conquer overwhelmingly through him who has loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor present things, nor future things, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

The Eighth Station: Jesus Meets The Women Of Jerusalem Scripture: Luke 23:27-31

And there followed him a great multitude of the people, and of women who bewailed and lamented him. But Jesus turning to them said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. For behold, the days are coming when they will say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bore, and the breasts that never gave suck!' Then they will begin to say to the mountains, 'Fall on us'; and to the hills, 'Cover us.' For if they do this when the wood is green, what will happen when it is dry?"

The Ninth Station: Jesus Falls A Third Time Scripture: Psalm 38

I am overwhelmed by a burden beyond my strength. I am stooped and deeply bowed; all day I go about mourning. My heart shudders, my strength forsakes me; the very light of my eyes has failed. Friends and companions shun my pain; my neighbors stand far off. Those who seek my life lay snares for me; they seek my misfortune, they speak of ruin; they plot treachery all the day. I am very near to falling; my pain is with me always. Come quickly to help me, my Lord and my salvation.

The Tenth Station: Jesus Is Stripped Of His Garments Scripture: John 19:23-24

When the soldiers had crucified Jesus they took his garments and made four parts, one for each soldier; also his tunic. But the tunic was without seam, woven from top to bottom; so they said to one another, "Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it to see whose it shall be." This was to fulfill the scripture, "They parted my garments among them, and for my clothing they cast lots."

The Eleventh Station: Jesus Is Nailed To The Cross Scripture: Luke 23:33-34

And when they came to the place which is called The Skull, there they crucified him, and the criminals, one on the right and one on the left. And Jesus said, "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do." And they cast lots to divide his garments.

The Twelfth Station: Jesus Dies On The Cross Scripture: Luke 23:44-46 (please kneel)

It was now about the sixth hour, and there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour, while the sun's light failed; and the curtain of the temple was torn in two. Then Jesus, crying with a loud voice, said, "Father, into thy hands I commit my spirit!" And having said this he breathed his last.

The Thirteenth Station: Jesus' Body Is Removed From The Cross Scripture: John 20:38-42

Now there was a virtuous and righteous man named Joseph who went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Pilate permitted it. So Joseph came and took his body. Nicodemus also came. They took the body of Jesus and bound it with burial cloths along with spices, according to the Jewish burial custom.

The Fourteenth Station: Jesus Is Laid In The Tomb Scripture: Matthew 27:57-60

And Joseph took the body, and wrapped it in a clean linen shroud, and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn in the rock; and he rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb, and departed.
