

TESTIMONIALS

"When your child understands and sees the difference in themselves because of school, then that validates RMDS is the right place for him."

VIONNA SOTO-BALDERAS, PARENT

"RMDS isn't only a school, it's a community! They make sure the student's academic & social needs are being met while providing access to information...to meet the needs of the students and their families. We greatly appreciate the passion & dedication shown by the staff...they always make us feel like part of the RMDS family."

ROBYN HOY, PARENT

"If RMDS didn't exist, I would be going to a hearing school and hating it. This school is the BEST learning environment for me to be in. "

Secondary Education

THE PATH TO A WHOLE CHILD

RMDS emphasizes the importance of a child's ability to self-actualize their dreams and goals. RMDS teachers and staff are experts specifically trained in the field of Deaf Education and culture. We provide students with love, a place to belong, linguistically and culturally. RMDS fosters each student's ability to thrive as a confident, productive human.

WHAT MAKES THE SECONDARY PROGRAM AT RMDS UNIQUE?

Teenagers are just beginning to come into their own as individuals, and RMDS provides each student with all the tools, support, and services each student needs to thrive in school. In addition to school-wide specialized and free services, opportunities to thrive include:

- Advanced Placement classes/ dual enrollment programs available with cooperative schools
- Rigorous academic programs culminating in a Colorado High School Diploma at graduation
- Opportunities to participate in academic competitions such as Battle of the Books, Academic Bowl, and MathCounts
- Social opportunities after school with our Teen Night Out program
- Cultural opportunities to travel and study abroad with the International Studies program
- Sports programs include: flag football, volleyball, basketball, and track

WHO WE ARE

RMDS is a free public charter school in Jefferson County, just outside Denver, Colorado, and the only bilingual American Sign Language/English charter school in the state. RMDS aims for excellence in research-based academic programs, creating opportunities for students to socialize with and create lasting friendships, and views each student as a success story.
